| 24 | <sup>1</sup> Federal Defendants and Defendant Intervenors have expressed intent to appeal the district court's previous rulings  |
| 25 | in this case and question whether it is appropriate for the Court to retain jurisdiction during the pendency of an appeal. "The filing of a notice of appeal confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court                       |
| 26 | of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." Small v. Operative Plasterers' and Cement Masons' Int'l. Assn. Local 200 AFL-CIO, 611 F.3d 483, 495 (9th Cir. 2010). "The district court only 'retains                                  |
| 27 | jurisdiction during the pendency of an appeal to act to preserve the status quo." Id. (citing Natural Res. Def. Council, Inc. v. Sw. Marine, Inc. , 242 F.3d 1163, 1166 (9th Cir.2001)). The Court will address the issue of jurisdiction if and |
| 28 | when any request is made during the pendency of an appeal.   |
