3 STIPULATION

4 WHEREAS, trial in this matter has been set to begin on April 26, 2011.

5 WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' counsel has a newly-arised potential conflict with the 6 April 26, 2011 case, described herein as follows and in the accompanying 7 Declaration of Benjamin Nisenbaum.

8 Plaintiffs' counsel represents Teresa Sheehan in a federal civil rights action
9 currently pending in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, Teresa
10 Sheehan v. City and County of San Francisco, et al, Case No. C 09 03889 CRB.
11 Trial in the Sheehan matter is currently set for November 29, 2010, before Judge 12 Charles R. Breyer. Sheehan involves a woman who was survived being shot several 13 times by San Francisco Police Department officers, while in her residence, following 14 a W&I section 5150 report of Ms. Sheehan threatening her social worker with a knife.
15 The likelihood of settlement in Sheehan is very low if not non-existent. Judge Breyer 16 set a short discovery calendar in that case (initial Case Management Conference was 17 February 26, 2010), due to the fact that the Plaintiff had been through a criminal trial 18 already. As discovery in Sheehan has progressed, two matters have arisen that 19 necessitate the Sheehan trial date being moved. Both matters are set forth in Exhibit 20 A to the accompanying Declaration of Benjamin Nisenbaum (the filed, but denied, 21 Joint Administrative Motion to Continue Trial Date and Modify Pre-Trial Conference
22 Order in Sheehan): One is that the period of discovery is simply too short. The other 23 matter is that Defense counsel for all defendants in that action, San Francisco Deputy 24 City Attorney Blake Loeb, will be out on paternity leave from October 11, 2010 to 25 January 11, 2010. Counsel in Sheehan submitted a stipulation to modify the Pre-26 Trial Conference Order in Sheehan to accommodate both matters, requesting a trial

1 date in June 2011 (for Plaintiffs' counsel, this would follow the trial of the instant
2 action). However, Judge Breyer rejected the proposed modification.

3 Judge Breyer indicated to Defendants' attorney, Mr. Loeb, that he would 4 entertain a "more modest" continuance of the trial date, in light of Mr. Loeb's paternity 5 leave. See Exhibit B to the accompanying Declaration of Benjamin Nisenbaum, the 6 Declaration of Blake P. Loeb.

7 Thus, counsel for the parties in Sheehan have sought another trial date in 8 Sheehan less remote than June 2011. The only feasible time to try Sheehan is late 9 April 2011. It appears likely to counsel in Sheehan that Judge Breyer would 10 accommodate this more modest request. Moreover, Dale L. Allen, Jr., Esq., counsel 11 for the City of Merced defendants, has a three-week trial in San Joaquin County 12 starting on June 20, 2011, followed by a pre-planned vacation. Accordingly, the 13 schedules of the parties' respective trial counsel necessitate moving the trial in this 14 action to no sooner than August 22, 2011, dependant on this Court's calendar.

15 Counsel for the parties in this action have conferred, and are available for trial 16 of this action on or after August 22, 2011. No other dates previously set by the 17 Court should be affected by this requested continuance.

18 IT IS SO STIPULATED.

19 Respectfully submitted,

20
21 Dated: June 7, 2010

8 ORDER

9 PURSUANT TO THE PARTIES' STIPULATION, the Court finds good 10 cause to continue the trial date in this action. The trial date of this action is hereby 11 continued to August 30, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. No other dates shall be affected by this 12 Order.

13 NO FURTHER CONTINUANCES.
