	Joint Stipulation and Order Regarding Schedule for Completion of Remand

RECITALS

- 1. On September 20, 2011, the Court entered its Memorandum Decision re Cross Motions for Summary Judgment (Doc. 633) in these Consolidated Salmonid Cases regarding the 2009 Salmonid Biological Opinion ("2009 Salmonid BiOp"). This decision found the 2009 Salmonid BiOp and its RPA arbitrary, capricious, and unlawful, and remands the 2009 Salmonid BiOp to the National Marine Fisheries Service ("NMFS") for further consideration in accordance with the Court's decision and the requirements of law.
- 2. On September 29, 2011, the Court entered its Order Allowing 30 Days for Further Development of Proposed Schedule for Completion of Remand and Requiring Joint Status Report (Doc. 642). This order granted the parties 30 days to confer to develop a mutually agreeable schedule for the simultaneous National Environmental Policy Act ("NEPA") and Endangered Species Act ("ESA") compliance on remand, and to submit a proposed form of judgment reflecting such agreement. If parties did not reach agreement, the order directed the parties to submit: (1) a single, joint status report articulating those issues on which the parties agree and the parties' separate positions on matters on which they disagree; and (2) proposed judgments, clearly identifying language on which the parties agree and disagree. The 30 day deadline set by the order will run on October 31, 2011.
- 3. Since the Court's order, the parties have participated in discussions regarding a schedule for simultaneous NEPA and ESA compliance on remand, but have not yet reached agreement. However, these parties would like to continue these discussions, and agree they need more time than the 30 days previously allowed to complete discussions and potentially reach agreement.

Good cause exists for granting the parties more time to discuss and potentially reach agreement on a process and schedule for completion of the remand, and the parties respectfully request that the deadline previously set by this Court be modified as shown below.
