9 FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
10

11 THOMAS GOOLSBY,

Case No. 1:09-cv-01650 JLT (PC)

12 Plaintiff,

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO AMEND INTERROGATORY NUMBER
NINE AND RENEW MOTION TO COMPEL

13 vs.

14 M. CARRASCO, et al.,

(Doc. 56)

15 Defendants.
16 _____ /

17 Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se with a civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C.
18 § 1983. Pending before the Court is Plaintiff's July 15, 2011 motion to amend interrogatory number 9
19 and renew his motion to compel.

20 I. BACKGROUND

21 On January 11, 2011, Plaintiff filed a motion to compel discovery responses. (Doc. 45.) Among 22 other things, Plaintiff requested that Defendant Gonzales be ordered to provide a complete response to 23 interrogatory number 9. (Id. at 6.) Interrogatory number 9 provides: "State the most time in any week
24 between [J]anuary 2008 to [J]anuary 2010 that IEM inmates received at yard at IV B shu? State the 25 same for 5 block IV A yard?" (Id.)

26 In its July 5, 2011 ruling on Plaintiff's motion to compel, the Court denied Plaintiff's request for 27 a further response to interrogatory number 9. (See Doc. 53 at 5-6.) The Court agreed with Defendant
28 that the interrogatory was overbroad because the amount of yard time other inmates received between

1 January 2008 and January 2010 was not on-point with Plaintiff's claim that he himself was deprived of
2 adequate out-of-cell exercise time during that time period. (Id. at 6.)

3 In response, on July 15, 2011, Plaintiff filed the instant motion to amend interrogatory number
4 9 and to renew his motion to compel. (Doc. 56.) Plaintiff wishes to amend his interrogatory to state the 5 following: "State the most time Plaintiff Thomas Goolsby F-19778 received out-of-cell exercise in an
6 IEM cage in a one week time period from January 2008 to January 2010, any week in between those
7 dates and applies to any building Plaintiff was in during the above time period." (Id. at 6.)

8 II. DISCUSSION

9 As an initial matter, the deadline for conducting discovery passed long ago. Pursuant to the 10 discovery and scheduling order in this case, discovery concluded on November 30, 2010.¹ (Doc. 20.)
11 Because Plaintiff has not shown good cause to amend the scheduling order under Federal Rule of Civil 12 Procedure 16(b), his belated attempt to amend his discovery requests and to compel a response from 13 Defendant must be denied. See Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609-10 (9th Cir.
14 1992) (good cause to amend a scheduling order requires the moving party to demonstrate that despite 15 its diligence it was unable to adhere to the court's deadlines).

16 Further, allowing Plaintiff to amend interrogatory number 9 would be superfluous. In its July
17 5, 2011 ruling on Plaintiff's motion to compel, the Court granted Plaintiff's request for the production
18 of documents number 8, which seeks documents indicating the amount of out-of-cell exercise Plaintiff
19 received during all times relevant to this action. (Doc. 53 at 11.) Any information obtained through this
20 discovery request would encompass any information Plaintiff might obtain by amending interrogatory
21 number 9.

26 ///

27
28 ¹ By order filed December 15, 2010, the Court granted Plaintiff until January 16, 2011, to file any motion to compel
he wished to pursue. (Doc. 44.)
