-BAM Coalition for a Sustainable Delta et al v. United States Fish and Wildlife Service et al

before appearances of defendant(s) are due. It is the obligation of counsel for the plaintiff(s) to serve 2 a copy of this Order on the defendant(s), or, if identified, on their counsel, promptly upon receipt of 3 this Order, and to file an appropriate proof of such service with the Court, in compliance with Rule 4 135(a) of the Local Rules of Practice for the Eastern District of California.

Attendance at the Scheduling Conference is mandatory by each party not represented by counsel or by retained counsel. Only counsel who are thoroughly familiar with the facts and the law 6 of the instant case, and who have full authority to bind his or her client, shall appear. Trial counsel 8 should participate in this Scheduling Conference whenever possible. It may be necessary for 9 counsel to spend as much as 45 minutes in this Conference.

10 A Joint Scheduling Report, carefully prepared and executed by all counsel/pro se parties, 11 shall be electronically filed in CM/ECF, one (1) full week prior to the Scheduling Conference, and 12 shall be e-mailed, in WordPerfect or Word format, to bamorders@caed.uscourts.gov.

13 For reference purposes, the Court requires that counsels' Joint Scheduling Report indicate the date, time, and courtroom of the Scheduling Conference. This information is to be placed 14 15 opposite the caption on the first page of the Report. Among other things, counsel will be expected to 16 discuss the possibility of settlement. Counsel are to discuss settlement thoroughly with each other 17 before undertaking the preparation of the Joint Scheduling Report and engaging in extensive 18 discovery. However, even if settlement negotiations are progressing, counsel are expected to comply 19 with the requirements of this Order unless otherwise excused by the Court. If the case is settled, 20 please promptly inform the Court, and counsels' presence, as well as the Joint Scheduling Report, 21 will not be required.

22 Counsel may request that their attendance be by telephonic conference. If two or more 23 parties wish to appear telephonically, counsel shall decide which will be responsible for making 24 prior arrangements for the conference call and shall initiate the call at the above-designated time. 25 After all parties are on the line, the call should then be placed to Judge McAuliffe's chambers at 26 (559) 499-5789. Additionally, counsel are directed to indicate on the face page of their Joint 27 Scheduling Report that the conference will be telephonic.

At least twenty (20) days prior to the Mandatory Scheduling Conference, trial counsel for all parties shall conduct and conclude a conference at a time and place arranged by counsel for the plaintiff(s). This conference preferably should be a personal conference between all counsel but, due to the distances involved in this District, a telephonic conference call involving all counsel/pro se parties is permissible. The Joint Scheduling Report shall respond to the following items by corresponding numbered paragraphs:

Form and Contents of the Joint Scheduling Report

7 1. Summary of the factual and legal contentions set forth in the pleadings of each party,
8 including the relief sought by any party presently before the Court.

9 2. A proposed deadline for amendments to pleadings shall be included. Any proposed amendment to the pleadings presently on file shall be filed by its proponent contemporaneously with the Scheduling Conference Report. If the matter cannot be resolved at the Scheduling Conference, the matter will be set as a Motion to Amend in accordance with the Rules of Practice of the Eastern District of California.

3. A summary of the uncontested and contested facts.

4. A summary of the legal issues as to which there is no dispute, e.g., jurisdiction, venue, applicable federal or state law, etc., as well as summary of the disputed legal issues.

17 5. The status of all matters which are presently set before the Court, e.g., hearings of18 motions, etc.
