

1 under seal, the Court must evaluate whether “‘good cause’ exists to protect th[e] information
2 from being disclosed to the public by balancing the needs for discovery against the need for
3 confidentiality.” Pintos, at 678 (quoting Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp.,
4 307 F.3d 1206, 1213 (9th Cir. 2002)).

5 Here, the documents sought to be sealed, in part, relate to proprietary information
6 maintained by Plaintiff about its ongoing business operations. As a result, the Court finds good
7 cause to ORDER the following pages SEALED:

- 8 1. The following pages of Defendant's Request to Seal Documents are SEALED:
 - 9 a. Page 124 of Exhibit B to the Declaration of Andrew J. Gabel
 - 10 b. The entirety of Exhibit C to the Declaration of Andrew J. Gabel
 - 11 c. The Clerk of the Court is DIRECTED to file these pages under seal;
- 12 2. The following pages of Defendant’s Request to Seal Documents are NOT

13 SEALED:

- 14 a. All remaining pages of Exhibit B to the Declaration of Andrew J. Gabel 15 including pages 122-123, 125-126, 153-156, 159-167
- 16 b. Counsel for Defendant is ORDERED to file these pages in the public 17 docket.

18
19 IT IS SO ORDERED.

20 Dated: May 13, 2011

21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
/s/ Jennifer L. Thurston
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE