19	Petitioner, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, has filed a habeas corpus action pursuant to 28
20	U.S.C. § 2254.
21	The federal venue statute requires that a civil action, other than one based on diversity		ity
22	jurisdiction, be brought only in "(1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside		de
23	in the same state, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise		ise
24	to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated, or		or
25	(3) a judicial district in which any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may		ay
26	otherwise be brought." 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).
27	In this case, the petitioner is challenging a conviction from Orange County, which is in the Central
28	District of California. Therefore, the petition should have been filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. In the interest of justice, a federal court may transfer a case filed in the wrong district to the correct district. See 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a); Starnes v. McGuire, 512 F.2d 918, 932 (D.C. Cir. 1974). Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this matter is transferred to the United States District Court for the Central District of California. IT IS SO ORDERED. Dated: __February 22, 2010 /s/ Dennis L. Beck
