

1 "Reconsideration Motion & Correspondent Notice to Court CCDRR [sic]" on July 14, 2014 (id., 2 at p. 2); and ends with a Clerk's Notice that a document Plaintiff attempted to file was returned
3 for lack of a case number, with Plaintiff's handwriting in the upper right quadrant of the first page
4 indicating the number to this case and stating "Returning back to be attached to reconsideration 5 motion 7-23-14" (id., at pp. 3-4).

6 The Court is wholly at a loss as to what Plaintiff is hoping to achieve and/or what relief he 7 seeks in this present motion. From the Clerk's Notice, it appears that Plaintiff submitted
8 documents without a case number on them, causing them to be returned to him. Plaintiff's 9 notation on that same document indicates that he wrote the number of this case on it and returned 10 the Clerk's Notice for filing.

11 If Plaintiff filed this motion hoping to preserve or edify his rendition of events regarding 12 difficulty he is having with his mail, he did so in error. The First Informational Order in this case
13 notes that the Court cannot serve as a repository for the parties' evidence, that he may not file 14 evidence with the Court until the course of litigation brings the evidence into question, and that 15 evidence improperly submitted to the court will be returned or stricken. (Doc. 3, p. 4.) If 16 Plaintiff feels that the events he has detailed in his miscellaneous motion have amounted to a 17 violation of his constitutional rights, his recourse is to file another action.

18 Accordingly, Plaintiff's miscellaneous motion, filed July 30, 2014 (Doc. 81), is DENIED 19 and the document is HEREBY STRICKEN.

21 IT IS SO ORDERED.
