27	Currently before the court is Defendants' motion to correct clerical error pursuant to
28	Rule 60(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In a memorandum opinion and order filed January 11, 2012, the court addressed Defendants' Motions to Dismiss Plaintiff's First

1	Amended Complaint (hereinafter, the January 11 Order). With regard to Plaintiff's third
2	claim for relief for violation of his Fourth Amendment right against arrest without probable
3	cause, the court determined that the action must be stayed pending resolution of the criminal
4	charges pending against Plaintiff in state court pursuant to Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 147
5	(1971). See Doc. # 96 at 32:5-24. In entering the order to stay, the court erroneously
6	included in the order parties that were not named as Defendants with regard to Plaintiffs'
7	claim for unlawful arrest in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint. Defendants point out two
8	of the parties were County of Merced and Supervisor O'Banion. The court also finds it erred
9	by including the names of Brizzee and Pazin, who were also not named as Defendants in
10	Plaintiff's third claim for relief.
11	Pursuant to Rule 60(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:
12	The court may correct a clerical mistake or a mistake arising from oversight ore omission, whenever one found in a judgment, order, or other part of the
13	record. The court may do so on motion or on its own, with or without notice.
14	Id.
15	While Defendants have noticed a motion to correct the record and have scheduled a
16	hearing thereon, the court has examined Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint and its January
17	11 Order and finds the court clearly erred in including the parties County of Merced,
18	Supervisor O'Banion, Brizzee and Pazin in the list of parties included in the stayed action.
19	The court will therefore correct the aforementioned errors pursuant to its inherent power
20	under Rule 60(a).
21
22	THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that the paragraph numbered 4 at page 44 of
23	the court's January 11 Order, Document number 96, is hereby STRICKEN and the following
24	is inserted in its place, nunc pro tunc:
25	4. Defendants' motions to dismiss as to Defendants Picinich, Jaskowiac, Hill, Leuchner,
26	Parker are hereby STAYED as to Plaintiff's claim for unlawful arrest in violation of 27	the Fourth Amendment as set forth in his third claim for relief. Any party having notice of the disposition of all of Plaintiff's criminal cases currently pending in state court that are relevant to this action shall provide notice of same to this court prior to, or concurrently with, any motion for decision on Defendants' motion to dismiss Plaintiff's claims for arrest without probable cause.

Defendants' motion to correct the court's Order of January 11, 2012, Doc. # 97, is hereby DENIED as moot. The hearing date of February 27, 2012 is hereby VACATED and no party shall appear at that time.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 14, 2012
