INTRODUCTION

On February 25, 2011, Plaintiffs Pamela Lance doing business as National Desalination Water Systems, Conroy Gooden and Florence E. Mason, filed a pleading entitled “Demand for Injunction Claim Against Unauthorized Use, Sale or Transfer of Jewish Colonial Stock” in this Court. (See Doc. 1.) The Court construes the pleading to be a complaint for its references “violations for Breach of Contract, Concealing of Stocks, willful violations of the Securities Act of 1933, deprivation of rights, [and] theft of earned wages . . .” (Doc. 1 at 1-2.) Plaintiffs seek

1 relief by way of an “emergency injunction.” More particularly, for example, Plaintiffs seek “an
2 Order of this Court to the Bank of America to release the Stocks held in their safe deposit box,”
3 to enjoin the Defendants “from attempting to sell, re-negotiate and secure any other funding
4 sources without the knowledge of” Plaintiffs, and that Defendant Adams be required to 5 “surrender all rights and possession of the . . . ‘JCT’ Stock currently held by Bank of America.”
6 (Doc. 1 at 7-10.) It also appears Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages, “attorney-in-fact” fees,
7 and costs. (Doc. 1 at 7-10.)

8 FACTUAL SUMMARY

9 Plaintiffs provide a “history and facts of the case” at pages two through six of their 10 complaint. While the complaint appears to present a chronological story of sorts, it is confusing.
11 Generally speaking, it appears that Plaintiff Pamela Lance and Defendant Leslie Jean Adams
12 entered into a written agreement entitled “Joint Venture Participation Agreement” on or about 13 December 4, 2010.¹ The agreement provided that Defendant Adams was to “make available
14 Funds of a value of Four Billion United States Dollars” that were to be “used as Collateral in 15 trading transactions to raise profit and project funding” for a “Humanitarian Platform.” (Doc. 1 16 at 2-3, 12.)

17 Thereafter, Plaintiffs Gooden and Mason became involved - apparently to provide private 18 funding in order to “monetize the ‘JCT’ stock.” “JCT” refers to “Jewish Colonial Trust” stock
19 owned by Defendant Adams. Before the transaction between Plaintiffs and Defendant Adams 20 could conclude however, Adams apparently decided she no longer wished to work with the 21 Plaintiffs. (Doc. 1 at 3-5.)

22 While it is far from clear, apparently Defendants Natalie Gary and Cornell J. Price
23 became involved shortly thereafter, to the exclusion of any rights held by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs 24

25 ¹Plaintiffs appended this agreement to the complaint, however, it appears pages eight and nine of the ten-
26 page agreement - assuming the entire agreement is ten pages in length - are missing. Additionally, the Court notes 27 the agreement purports to involve a third party: Raoul McKinney. However, although he is identified as “Party C” in the agreement itself, Mr. McKinney did not affix his initials to the agreement as did Plaintiff Lance (identified in the agreement as “Party B”) and Defendant Adams (identified in the agreement as “Party A”).

1 assert Defendants Adams, Gary and Price “conspired to sabatage [sic] the dea[l].” (Doc. 1 at 5.)
2 Apparently Defendant Price acted as a “closing attorney” to assist Defendant Adams in 3 concluding “the deal,” with unnamed third parties. (Doc. 1 at 5-6.) Defendant Gary is identified
4 as a “bank representative.” (Doc. 1 at 5.) Notably, although Equities First Holdings, LLC is 5 named as a defendant in the caption, there is no mention of this entity in the facts and/or body of 6 the complaint or its purported wrongdoing.

7 DISCUSSION

8 A. *Screening Standard

9 “Notwithstanding any filing fee, or any portion thereof, that may have been paid,” the 10 Court shall dismiss a case at any time if it determines that the action or appeal is frivolous or 11 malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief
12 against a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). See also Omar v.
13 Sea-Land Service, Inc., 813 F.2d 986, 991 (9th Cir. 1987); Wong v. Bell, 642 F.2d 359, 361-62
14 (9th Cir. 1981). If the Court determines that the complaint fails to state a claim, leave to amend 15 may be granted to the extent that the deficiencies of the complaint can be cured by amendment.
16 Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1130 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc).

17 A complaint must contain “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the 18 pleader is entitled to relief . . .” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). Detailed factual allegations are not 19 required, but “[t]hreadbare recitals of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere 20 conclusory statements, do not suffice.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009) (citing 21 Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 1964-65 (2007)). Plaintiff 22 must set forth “sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a claim that is plausible on its 23 face.’” Iqbal, 129 S.Ct. at 1949 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555). While factual allegations
24 are accepted as true, legal conclusion are not. Id. at 1949.

25 If the Court determines that the complaint fails to state a claim, leave to amend should be 26 granted to the extent that the deficiencies of the complaint can be cured by amendment. Lopez v.

1 Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1130 (9th Cir. 2000). Dismissal of a pro se complaint for failure to state a
2 claim is proper only where it is obvious that the Plaintiff cannot prevail on the facts that he has 3 alleged and that an opportunity to amend would be futile. Lopez, at 1128.

4 A claim is frivolous if it lacks an arguable basis either in law or fact. Neitzke v. Williams, 5 490 U.S. 319, 324, 109 S.Ct. 1827, 104 L.Ed.2d 338 (1989). A frivolous claim is based on an 6 inarguable legal conclusion or a fanciful factual allegation. Id. A federal court may dismiss a 7 claim as frivolous if it is based on an indisputably meritless legal theory or if the factual
8 contentions are clearly baseless. Id.

9 B. Jurisdiction

10 Plaintiffs' complaint asserts this Court's jurisdiction arises under Title 28 of the United 11 States Code section 1331, which provides as follows: "The district courts shall have original 12 jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United 13 States." Plaintiffs' complaint vaguely references "Federal and State laws regarding fraudulent 14 security transfers and deceptive, unsavory business practices." (See Doc. 1 at 1.) Nevertheless,
15 Plaintiffs' complaint fails to specifically identify what federal laws have been violated.
16 Plaintiffs' reference to "the Securities Act of 1933" is insufficient for Plaintiffs fail to reference
17 any section of the Act with particularity. (See Doc. 1 at 2.) It is not the Court's responsibility to 18 guess at Plaintiffs intended claims. Additionally, Plaintiffs' complaint asserts a "deprivation of 19 rights," but fails to identify which rights have allegedly been violated. (See Doc. 1 at 2.) Again, 20 it is Plaintiffs' responsibility to plainly identify which of their rights have been violated.
21 Similarly too, Plaintiffs vague references to the "Federal Trade Commission" or the "FCC" and 22 its "rules" or "ordinances" is also insufficient. (See Doc. 1 at 7-8.)

23 Plaintiffs will be granted leave to amend their complaint to specifically identify those 24 federal and/or state laws that Defendants have purportedly violated.

28

1 C. *The Parties

2 Next, it is noted that Plaintiffs are identified as follows: Pamela Lance doing business as 3 National Desalination Water Systems (“NDWS”), and individuals Conroy Gooden and Florence
4 E. Mason. There are issues of standing as to all Plaintiffs that must be addressed.

5 A plaintiff must have capacity to sue. “Capacity” refers to a party’s personal right to 6 litigate in federal court. See Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 17(b).

7 First, Plaintiffs are advised that a “corporation may appear in the federal courts only 8 through licensed counsel.” Rowland v. California Men’s Colony, 506 U.S. 194, 202, 113 S.Ct.
9 716, 721 (1993); United States v. High Country Broadcasting Co., Inc., 3 F.3d 1244, 1245 (9th 10 Cir. 1993); see also Osborn v. President of Bank of United States, 9 Wheat. 738, 829, 6 L.Ed.
11 204 (1824); Turner v. American Bar Ass’n, 407 F.Supp. 451, 476 (N.D. Tex. 1975) (citing the 12 “long line of cases” from 1824 to the present holding that a corporation may only be represented
13 by licensed counsel). All artificial entities must appear in federal court through counsel.
14 Rowland, 506 U.S. at 202. Additionally, this Court’s Local Rule 183(a) provides: “A 15 corporation or other entity may appear only by an attorney.”

16 Thus, because neither Pamela Lance, Conroy Gooden nor Florence E. Mason are licensed 17 to practice law, none may bring suit on behalf of NDWS. NDWS is an entity that must be 18 represented by a licensed attorney.

19 Second, the complaint was signed only by Pamela Lance on behalf of NDWS. (Doc. 1 at 20 10.) "A litigant appearing in propria persona has no authority to represent anyone other than 21 himself." Russell v. United States, 308 F.2d 78, 79 (9th Cir. 1962). Non-attorney litigants may 22 not represent others. Johns v. County of San Diego, 114 F.3d 874, 876 (9th Cir. 1997); Church
23 of the New Testament v. U.S., 783 F.2d 771, 774 (9th Cir. 1986); McShane v. United States, 366
24 F.2d 286, 288 (9th Cir. 1966). Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides:

25 Every pleading, written motion, and other paper must be signed by at least 26 one attorney . . . or by a party personally if the party is unrepresented. . . . The 27 court must strike an unsigned paper unless the omission is promptly corrected
28 after being called to the attorney’s or party’s attention.

1 (Emphasis added.) Therefore, Ms. Lance may not act as the attorney for named Plaintiffs
2 Gooden and Mason.

3 Plaintiffs will be given an opportunity to amend their complaint to include Mr. Gooden
4 and Ms. Mason as proper plaintiffs by providing their signatures on any amended complaint.²
5 Additionally, Plaintiffs shall amend their complaint to properly address the standing of NDWS -
6 either Plaintiffs shall obtain counsel for NDWS or the complaint shall be amended to name
7 Pamela Lance in her individual capacity only.

8 D. Rule 8(a)

9 As Rule 8(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure states, a complaint must contain "a 10 short and plain statement of the claim." The rule expresses the principle of notice-pleading, 11 whereby the pleader need only give the opposing party fair notice of a claim. Conley v. Gibson,
12 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957). Rule 8(a) does not require an elaborate recitation of every fact a 13 plaintiff may ultimately rely upon at trial, but only a statement sufficient to "give the defendant 14 fair notice of what the plaintiff's claim is and the grounds upon which it rests." Id. at 47.

15 Plaintiffs will be given an opportunity to amend portions of their complaint to comply 16 with Rule 8(a). As noted above, an elaborate recitation of the fact is not required. In the 17 paragraphs that follow, the Court will provide Plaintiffs with the legal standards that appear to 18 apply to their claims. Plaintiffs should carefully review the standards and amend their complaint 19 to present only those claims that they believe, in good faith, are cognizable. Plaintiffs are 20 advised that their first amended complaint must contain all necessary allegations. Moreover, if 21 Plaintiffs wish to allege causes of action, they must separate each claim and state facts in support 22 of each individual claim against each defendant.

26 ²In the event Plaintiffs Gooden and Mason file an amended complaint, should their contact information be 27 different from that of Plaintiff Lance, they shall provide the Court with all necessary contact information as provided 28 for in this Court's Local Rules.

1 “Unfair” means “conduct that threatens an incipient violation of an antitrust law, or 2 violates the policy or spirit of one of those laws because its effects are comparable to or the same
3 as a violation of the law, or otherwise specifically threatens or harms competition.” Cel-Tech
4 Communications v. L.A. Cellular Tel. Co., 20 Cal.4th 163, 187, 83 Cal.Rptr.2d 548, 973 P.2d
5 527 (1999). The “fraudulent” prong requires plaintiff to “show deception to some members of 6 the public, or harm to the public interest.” Watson Laboratories, Inc. v. Thone-Poulenc Rorer,
7 Inc., 178 F.Supp.2d 1099, 1121 (C.D. Cal. 2001). A complaint based on an unfair business 8 practice may be predicated on a single act; the statute does not require a pattern of unlawful 9 conduct. United Farm Workers of Am., AFL-CIO v. Dutra Farms, 83 Cal.App.4th 1146, 1163, 10 100 Cal.Rptr.2d 251 (2000); Brewer v. Indymac Bank, 609 F.Supp.2d 1104, 1122 (E.D. Cal.
11 2009).

12 To state a claim, Plaintiffs must specifically allege: (1) what acts by Defendants were 13 unlawful, unfair or fraudulent; (2) indicate what harm was suffered; and (3) indicate that 14 Defendants were the substantial factor in causing Plaintiffs harm.

15 F. Relief Requested

16 Plaintiffs’ complaint seeks relief, in part, by way of an “emergency injunction.” The 17 following information is provided with regard to injunctive relief.

18 “A preliminary injunction is an extraordinary remedy never awarded as of right.” Winter
19 v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 129 S.Ct. 365, 376 (2008) (citation omitted). “A 20 plaintiff seeking a preliminary injunction must establish that he is likely to succeed on the merits, 21 that he is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, that the balance of 22 equities tips in his favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest.” Id. at 374. An 23 injunction may only be awarded upon a clear showing that the plaintiff is entitled to relief. Id. at 24 376.

25 Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction and in considering a request for 26 preliminary injunctive relief, the Court is bound by the requirement that as a preliminary matter, 27

1 it have before it an actual case or controversy. City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95, 102, 2 103 S.Ct. 1660, 1665 (1983); Valley Forge Christian Coll. v. Ams. United for Separation of
3 Church and State, Inc., 454 U.S. 464, 471, 102 S.Ct. 752, 757-58 (1982). If the Court does not 4 have an actual case or controversy before it, it has no power to hear the matter in question. Id.

5 The Court does not presently have an actual case and controversy before it, as explained
6 above. As it stands then, the Court cannot address Plaintiffs' request for injunctive relief.

7 Further, despite Plaintiffs' assertions to the contrary, the "Demand for an Injunction Claim . . ."
8 or complaint does not establish that they are likely to succeed on the merits, that they are likely to 9 suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, that the balance of equities tips in 10 their favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest.

11 G. *Miscellaneous

12 Plaintiffs will be provided an opportunity to cure the deficiencies identified herein and 13 establish to the Court that their claims are proper.

14 Plaintiffs are advised that summonses have not yet been issued in this matter. Once this 15 Court determines any amended complaint is operative and proper, the Court will then direct the 16 Clerk of the Court to issue such summonses. In the meantime, Plaintiffs shall not seek to serve
17 their amended complaint on any Defendants, as Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
18 provides that both a summons and complaint must be served; the rule also addresses the manner 19 of service required.

20 Finally, the Court encourages Plaintiffs to consider seeking the assistance of an attorney
21 to represent their interests in this matter. Given the number of parties involved and the potential 22 that a number of agreements or contracts may also be at issue, this matter will likely be 23 complicated to litigate for parties not trained in the law. However, Plaintiffs may certainly 24 exercise the right to represent themselves.

27

28

1 CONCLUSION

2 For the reasons given above, Plaintiffs' complaint is DISMISSED WITH LEAVE TO 3 AMEND. Plaintiffs' first amended complaint is due within thirty (30) days of the date of 4 service of this order. If Plaintiffs fail to file a first amended complaint, the Court will 5 recommend that this action be dismissed for failure to follow a court order.

6 Plaintiffs are cautioned that an amended complaint supercedes the original complaint, and 7 must be "complete in itself without reference to the prior or superceded pleading." See Forsyth
8 v. Humana, Inc., 114 F.3d 1467, 1474 (9th Cir. 1997); King v. Atiyeh, 814 F.2d 565, 567 (9th 9 Cir. 1987); Local Rule 220. Plaintiffs are warned that "[a]ll causes of action alleged in an 10 original complaint which are not alleged in an amended complaint are waived." King, 814 F.2d
11 at 567, citing to London v. Coopers & Lybrand, 644 F.2d 811, 814 (9th Cir. 1981); accord
12 Forsyth, 114 F.3d at 1474.
