MICHAEL STAINER, et al.,)
)
Defendants.)

On October 28, 2015, the Court held a settlement conference. While the parties were not able to come to a settlement, they developed terms by which, if satisfied, settlement will be achieved.

Toward this end, the Court ORDERS:

1. No later than November 25, 2015, counsel for Plaintiffs SHALL file his motion to withdraw from the representation of the plaintiffs (Barriga and Lopez), whose whereabouts are unknown to counsel and with whom counsel has had no communication in a significant period. Alternatively, Plaintiffs’ counsel SHALL file a notice that counsel has reestablished communication with these Plaintiffs by November 25, 2015;
2. No later than November 6, 2015, counsel for Plaintiffs SHALL file a notice of death related to the deceased plaintiff. The notice of death SHALL be served on any known heirs and successors of the deceased plaintiff;
3. No later than November 25, 2015, counsel SHALL jointly file a request for a

1 determination that the claim of the deceased plaintiff has been extinguished by his death—supported
2 by sufficient authorities—if they determine that, indeed, the claim is extinguished. The request
3 SHALL be served on any known heirs and successors of the deceased plaintiff;

4 4. No later than November 20, 2015, counsel for Plaintiffs SHALL send
5 correspondence or otherwise communicate with the named Plaintiffs and will recommend settlement
6 on the terms discussed at the settlement conference

7 5. No later than January 8, 2016, counsel SHALL file a joint status report detailing
8 their efforts to achieve settlement based upon the terms discussed at the settlement conference.
