) ORDER

12 In the Matter of the Designation of a Magistrate Judge for Service in Another District

13
14 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(f), in an emergency and upon the concurrence of the chief 15 judges of the districts involved, a United States magistrate judge may be temporarily assigned to 16 perform any of the duties specified in subsections (a), (b), or (c) of this section in a judicial 17 district other than the judicial district for which he or she has been appointed. No magistrate 18 judge shall perform any of such duties in a district to which he or she has been temporarily 19 assigned until an order has been issued by the chief judge of such district specifying the 20 emergency by reason of which the magistrate judge is being transferred, the duration of his or 21 her assignment, and the duties which he or she is authorized to perform.

22 Due to exigencies, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has assigned the above-captioned
23 civil case in the Eastern District of California to the Honorable Cormac J. Carney, a U.S. district
24 judge in the Central District of California. This assignment has created an emergency situation
25 in the Eastern District of California due to the unavailability of an Eastern District of California
26 magistrate judge to assist Judge Carney with work on the case. For this reason, the court 27 certifies the need for assistance from a visiting magistrate judge from the Central District of 28 California, the Honorable Arthur Nakazato, during pendency of this case in the court.

1 THEREFORE,

2
3 IT IS ORDERED, with the concurrence of the Honorable Audrey B. Collins, Chief 4 Judge of the Central District of California, that United States Magistrate Judge Nakazato is 5 hereby designated to hold court and perform any and all judicial duties designated under 28
6 U.S.C. §636, subsections (a), (b), and (c) in the Eastern District of California on an as-needed
7 basis for the duration of this case assignment.
