 25 following provisions shall govern the handling of such confidential information and documents 26 in these proceedings:

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. DEFINITIONS

2 For purposes of the Order:

3 “Confidential Information” shall mean trade secrets, know-how, confidential research, 4 proprietary data, or any other technical, commercial, business, or financial information which is

8 “Producing Party” or “Designating Party” shall mean the person or entity (and its 9 counsel) who is producing information to any other party.

20 things that in good faith it believes contains or is Confidential Information not normally available 21 to persons other than the Producing Party, is competitively significant and commercially
22 sensitive, and hence should be subject to more restrictive dissemination than other Confidential
23 Information.

25 “Confidential—Counsel Only.”

26 B. GENERAL RULES

27 1. (a) Subject to subparagraph (1)(d) below, each Producing Party may designate 28 any document or thing produced in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” or “CONFIDENTIAL—

1 COUNSEL ONLY.” Such designation shall be made by stamping or affixing thereto an 2 appropriate legend. With respect to Confidential Information that cannot be conveniently 3 designated in such manner, designation shall be made by informing the Receiving Party in 4 writing, prior to or concurrently with, the disclosure of such information, subject to the 5 provisions of paragraphs 10 and 11 herein. All Confidential Information designated as provided 6 in this paragraph 1 shall not be disclosed by the Receiving Party to anyone other than those 7 persons designated herein, and shall be handled in the manner set forth below. All produced 8 Confidential Information shall be carefully maintained, subject to the provisions of paragraph 9 1(b) herein, so as to preclude access by persons who are not authorized herein to receive such 10 information.

11 (b) All Confidential Information which has been designated 12 “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY,” and any and all reproductions thereof, shall be 13 retained by the Receiving Party only in the custody of its counsel, except that Independent 15 custody of such copies as are necessary for their participation in this litigation.

16 (c) Any Receiving Party or Independent Expert, or any other person or entity, 17 who views or learns any Confidential Information is prohibited from disclosing or using

28 paragraph 6); and

1 (d) The Court and its staff, including the trier(s) of fact.

2 3. Information designated “CONFIDENTIAL–COUNSEL ONLY” by any other

6 (b) No more than two (2) representatives of a party, who shall be identified in 7 advance of reviewing such information;

8 (c) Litigation specialists engaged to assist Counsel in preparation for 9 discovery and/or trial, including photocopy and translation services, court reporters, and 10 litigation or trial support services;

11 (d) Independent Experts and their employees/support staff (subject to 12 paragraph 6); and

13 (e) The Court and its staff.

14 If the non-designating party does not agree to such designation, then the designating party 15 will promptly move the court for a protective order and production of such documents will be 16 deferred until a ruling has been made with respect to the application for a protective order.

17 4. Information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be viewed solely by the 18 following persons, provided that as to the classes of individuals listed in subparagraphs (c)-(g) 19 below, each such individual who receives such Confidential Information has read this Protective 20 Order in advance of disclosure and acknowledged in a written instrument, substantially in the 21 form of Attachment A hereto, that he or she is fully familiar with the terms of this Protective 22 Order and agrees to comply with, and be bound by, such Order until modified by further Order 23 of this Court. A copy of such duly executed, written instrument shall be maintained by Counsel 24 for the Receiving Party.

25 (a) Counsel, including Counsel’s associates, paralegal, clerks and 26 stenographic personnel;

27 ///

28 ///

1 (b) Litigation specialists engaged to assist Counsel in preparation for 2 discovery and/or trial, including photocopy and translation services, court reporters, and 3 litigation or trial support services;

4 (c) Parties, as well we executives, including in-house attorneys and Directors, 5 of a party who are required to participate in policy decisions with reference to this action;

6 (d) Litigation specialists assigned by any insurer involved in defending this 7 action;

8 (e) Employees of a party who need to be consulted by Counsel in preparation 9 for discovery or trial of this action;

10 (f) Independent Experts retained by the parties (subject to paragraph 6); and 11 (g) Clerical employees associated with the individuals enumerated above.

12 5. With respect to litigation specialists engaged to assist Counsel in preparation for 13 discovery and/or trial, including photocopy and translation services, court reporters, litigation or 14 trial support services, the parties agree that the mere receipt of documentary or other evidence by 15 such specialists will not subject such individuals to deposition unless they are expected to be 16 called as witnesses at trial.

17 6. Before any disclosure is made to an Independent Expert, such Independent Expert 18 shall first be identified to counsel for the opposing party and shall acknowledge in a written 19 instrument, substantially in the form of Attachment A hereto, that he or she is fully familiar with 20 the terms of this Protective Order and agrees to comply with, and be bound by such Order until 21 modified by further Order of this Court. The duly executed written instrument shall be provided 22 to and maintained by Counsel for the Designating Party. At least five (5) business days before 23 any Confidential Information is disclosed to an Independent Expert, the party disclosing such 24 shall notify the Designating Party's Counsel of such proposed disclosure, by facsimile or 25 electronic mail, including the name and business affiliation of the Independent Expert. Counsel 26 for the opposing party shall have the right to object for good cause to such proposed disclosure to 27 the Independent Expert, and should such objections be made, counsel for the opposing party may 28 bring the dispute to the Court's attention. If the dispute is brought to the Court's attention,

1 disclosure shall not be made to the Independent Expert until the dispute is resolved. Failure of 2 opposing Counsel to object in writing, received by the other party within said five (5) business
3 day period, or to bring any dispute to the Court's attention within five (5) business days 4 following the making of any such objection, will signify that the opposing party has no objection
5 to the disclosure and the disclosure may then be made pursuant to the terms of this Order.

6 7. With respect to documents designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or 7 CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY," any person indicated on the face of the document to be 8 its originator, author, or a recipient of a copy thereof, may be shown the same. In the case where 9 such person is not presently an employee of any party to this action, such person shall not be 10 shown such Confidential Information unless and until that person has read this Protective Order 11 and agreed in writing, in a form substantially similar to that of Attachment A hereto, to be bound 12 by its terms.

13 8. Any documents which are filed with or delivered to the Court for any purpose and 14 which are designated as provided in paragraph 1, and any pleadings, motions, or other papers
15 filed with the Court disclosing Confidential Information, may be designated by the affected party 16 as containing Confidential Information subject to the provisions of this Order, and filed under 17 seal (in whole or in pertinent part as the clerk directs) and kept under seal unless and until the 18 Confidential Information designation is removed by the Producing Party or until further order of 19 the Court. Where possible, only the portions of the filings with the Court which contain 20 Confidential Information shall be filed under seal. In connection with any hearing, trial, or 21 proceeding concerning this action before the Court, counsel for the affected party may apply to 22 the Court for in camera treatment of any Confidential Information necessary for disclosure in 23 relation to such hearing, trial, or proceeding. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall 24 prohibit the admission of Confidential Information into evidence if such information is otherwise 25 admissible under the Rules of Evidence.

26 9. Whenever a deposition taken on behalf of any party involves disclosure of 27 Confidential Information:

28 ///

1 (a) The deposition (or portions thereof) may be designated by the affected 2 party as containing Confidential Information subject to the provisions of this Order. Such 3 designation shall be made on the deposition record whenever possible, or upon review of such 4 transcript by Counsel for the party or person disclosing any “CONFIDENTIAL” or 5 “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY” information, but no later than thirty (30) days after 6 Counsel’s receipt of the transcript. Counsel shall list on a separate piece of paper the number of 7 each page of the transcript containing “CONFIDENTIAL” Material or “CONFIDENTIAL—8 COUNSEL ONLY” Material, and mail copies of the list to Counsel for all Parties so that it may 9 be affixed to the face of the transcript and each copy thereof Pending such designation by 10 Counsel, the entire deposition transcript, including exhibits, shall be deemed 11 “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY” Material; if no designation is made within thirty (30) 12 days after Counsel’s receipt of the transcript, the transcript shall be considered not to contain any 13 “CONFIDENTIAL” Material or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY” Material.

14 (b) The Disclosing Party shall have the right to exclude from attendance at 15 said deposition during such time as Confidential Information is to be disclosed any person other 16 than the deponent, Counsel (including their staff and associates), persons authorized by 17 paragraphs 2 or 3 (as applicable) to view the information, and the court reporter, and the failure 18 of such other persons to comply with such a request shall constitute substantial justification for 19 Counsel to advise the witness that he or she need not answer a question seeking the revelation of 20 Confidential Information, and each Party waives attendance at depositions during that portion of 21 the deposition surrounding disclosure of information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL—22 COUNSEL ONLY”; and

23 (c) The originals of said deposition transcripts and all copies thereof shall 24 bear the legend “CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION SUBJECT TO 25 PROTECTIVE ORDER,” or the substantial equivalent, on the cover page, and shall bear the 26 legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY,” or substantial 27 equivalent as appropriate on the specific pages so designated.

28 ///

1 (d) The parties may direct the court reporter at the deposition to keep 2 confidential and not disclose any testimony that is designated CONFIDENTIAL or 3 CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY. In such case, the court reporter who transcribes
4 CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY testimony in this action at a 5 deposition shall agree, before transcribing any such testimony, that all CONFIDENTIAL or 6 CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY testimony is and shall remain CONFIDENTIAL and 7 shall not be disclosed except as provided in this Order. Further, any such court reporter shall 8 agree that copies of any such transcripts, including exhibits, will be marked CONFIDENTIAL or 9 CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY, separately bound, and will be retained in absolute 10 confidentiality and safe keeping by such reporter. The court reporter must also agree that any 11 reporter's notes, or other transcription records of any testimony designated as CONFIDENTIAL 12 or CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY (including computer files, disks, shorthand notes and 13 computer generated printouts of testimony) will be retained in absolute confidentiality and safe 14 keeping by such reporter, or delivered to Counsel of Record in this action or filed under seal with 15 the Court. Any such court reporter, or any videographer, will first execute the Acknowledgment 16 in Attachment A hereto that he or she is fully familiar with the terms of this Protective Order and 17 agrees to comply with and be bound by such Order.

18 10. Neither the taking of any action in accordance with the provisions of this 19 Protective Order, nor the failure to object thereto, shall be construed as a waiver of any claim or 20 defense in this action. At any time after production, the Producing Party may designate 21 information thereafter to be treated as Confidential Information. In such case, there shall be no 22 liability of the Receiving Party for use prior to such post-production designation. Moreover, the 23 failure to designate information in accordance with this Order and the failure to object to a 24 designation at a given time shall not preclude the filing of a motion at a later date seeking to 25 impose such designation or seeking to challenge the appropriateness of such designation. The 26 entry of this Order shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to object to the furnishing of 27 information in response to discovery or to object to a requested inspection of documents or 28 things, and, except as expressly provided, shall not relieve any party of the obligation of 1 producing information in the course of discovery. The fact that a party has designated 2 information as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY” in this action

3 shall have no evidentiary effect in this action. In the case of physical inspections or on site visits 4 which occur by Court Order, discovery request, or the agreement or stipulation of Counsel, the 5 Party allowing the inspection may designate in advance, or contemporaneously with the 6 inspection, items and areas of the plant, office, or warehouse which contain CONFIDENTIAL or 7 CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY materials. In such areas, the film, video tape, 8 photograph, record, or other such medium recording the area shall be maintained as 9 CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY (in accordance with the 10 designation of the area).

11 11. In the event anyone shall violate or threaten to violate the terms of this Order, the 12 parties agree that the aggrieved party may immediately apply to obtain injunctive relief against 13 any such person, and in the event the aggrieved party shall do so, the respondent person, subject
14 to the provisions of this Order, shall not employ as a defense thereto the claim that the aggrieved
15 party possesses an adequate remedy at law. The parties and any other person subject to the terms 16 of this Order agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over it and them for the purpose of 17 enforcing or modifying this Order, notwithstanding any subsequent disposition of this action.

18 12. A party receiving a document or thing which has been designated pursuant to 19 paragraph 1 by the Producing Party, may move the Court to remove or change such designation.
20 Grounds for removal include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

21 (a) The information provided by the document or thing is not Confidential 22 because it is available in the public domain through no fault of the Receiving Party;

23 (b) The information provided by the document or thing is not Confidential
24 because it was previously independently known to the Receiving Party;

25 (c) The information provided by the document or thing is not Confidential 26 because it was received from a third party who lawfully possessed such information and had the 27 unrestricted right to disclose such information and without breach of any relationship of 28 confidentiality; or

1 (d) The information provided by the document or thing is not Confidential 2 because it was information developed from independent sources without use of the designated 3 Confidential Information.

4 Grounds for change in designation from a more restrictive to a less restrictive category 5 include failure of the information to reasonably comply with the criteria set forth in the 6 Definitions. Upon any challenge to the correctness of a designation of confidentiality, the 7 burden shall be on the Designating Party to defend the appropriateness of the designation.

8 13. Within forty-five (45) days after the last to occur of entry of final judgment, 9 waiver of appeal or termination of all appeals, or of dismissal in connection with this action, all 10 documents and things, including transcripts of depositions or of trial, together with all copies 11 thereof, which have been designated as, or which contain information which has been designated 12 as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY” shall be returned to the 13 Designating Party. In lieu of returning such designated materials as provided above, at the 14 Receiving Party’s option, counsel for the Receiving Party may certify in writing to the counsel 15 for the Designating Party that the materials have been destroyed. In addition, each party shall 16 upon request provide opposing Counsel with a copy of each executed Attachment A signed by 17 any person authorized under Paragraph 3 above. Notwithstanding the above provisions, 18 however, Counsel may retain a permanent archival file copy of all pleadings designated 19 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY.”

20 14. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Protective Order shall be deemed to 21 preclude any party from seeking and obtaining, on an appropriate showing, additional protection 22 with respect to the dissemination of Confidential Information or seeking and obtaining relief 23 from this Protective Order.

24 15. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order shall be 25 deemed to preclude any party from disclosing or using, in any manner or for any purpose, any 26 information or documents from the party’s own file which the party itself has designated as 27 CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY.

28 ///

1 16. This Protective Order may be amended by agreement of the parties, subject to the 2 approval of the Court.

3 17. This Protective Order shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, third 4 parties with respect to documents and information produced by them in the course of pretrial
5 discovery, and designated by them as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL 6 ONLY” in the manner provided herein. Documents and information, including deposition 7 testimony, received from a third party pursuant to a subpoena, or equivalent process in foreign 8 jurisdictions, which would otherwise legitimately be considered Confidential Information if 9 produced by a party may be designated as such by the affected party. Such designation shall be 10 made in a writing to each other party, or on an official record, which identifies specifically the 11 document(s), information, or testimony to be designated, whether the designation is 12 CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL—COUNSEL ONLY. Third party documents, 13 information, or testimony so designated under this paragraph shall in all other respects be treated 14 under the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order as though produced by a party.

15 18. If a party or person in possession of Confidential Information as provided herein
16 receives a subpoena from a non-party seeking production or other disclosure of Confidential 17 Information which said party or person received from the Designating Party, then telephonic and 18 written notice shall immediately be given to counsel for the Designating Party of the subpoena, 19 identifying the Confidential Information sought and arranging for transmission of a copy of the 20 subpoena to said counsel. Where possible, at least ten (10) business days’ notice shall be given 21 before production or other disclosure is made pursuant to the subpoena. In no event, absent 22 Court Order, shall production or disclosure be made before written notice is given. A party thus 23 subpoenaed shall take all appropriate measures timely to advise any relevant Court or tribunal of 24 the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

25 19. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than in a manner 26 authorized by this Stipulated Protective Order, the party responsible for such disclosure shall 27 upon discovery of the disclosure immediately inform the party whose information is disclosed of 28 all facts pertinent thereto, which after due diligence and prompt investigation are known to the

1 responsible party, including the name, address and employer of the person to whom the 2 disclosure was made, and shall make reasonable efforts to prevent further disclosure by each 3 unauthorized person who has received such information.

4 20. Nothing herein shall bar or otherwise restrict Counsel from rendering advice to 5 his or her client with respect to this action, and in the course thereof, from generally relying upon 6 Confidential Information. In rendering such advice, Counsel shall not disclose the specific 7 content of Confidential Information.

8 21. This Protective Order shall have no application in or to the conduct of trial except 9 as otherwise directed or ordered by the Court.
