UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

HARVEY CURTIS BAKER,
Plaintiff,
v.
JAMES A. YATES,
Defendant.

Case No. 1:12-cv-00126-LJO-SAB
ORDER RE PLAINTIFF’S FILING
(ECF NO. 34)

On November 21, 2012, Plaintiff Harvey Curtis Baker (“Plaintiff”) filed a correspondence with this Court. (ECF No. 34.) It is unclear what Plaintiff’s filing requests, if anything, or if it was even intended for the Court. The filing does not have a caption, and is addressed to “Program Administrator.” Plaintiff asks the “Program Administrator” for information regarding the Voluntary Dispute Resolution program.

Plaintiff is advised that the Voluntary Dispute Resolution Program is a program available in cases where all parties agree to submit their case for alternative dispute resolution, such as mediation, negotiation or other forms of settlement facilitation. The Court will not submit this case to the Voluntary Dispute Resolution Program unless all parties inform the Court that they wish to participate. If the parties wish to refer this action to the Voluntary Dispute Resolution Program, they must submit a stipulation signed by all parties.
