04/18/2013	38	(Copies of MDL 1645 & 2083) ORDER DIRECTING PLAINTIFFS TO SHOW CAUSE WHY CLAIMS AS TO GENERIC DEFENDANTS SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED: 1. plaintiffs in each case with any remaining claims pending against any Generic Defendant are directed to SHOW CAUSE why the Court's Memorandum Opinion and Order Regarding Generic Defendants' Motions to Dismiss [MDL Record No. 1305] is not applicable to their claims against the Generic Defendant(s) and why any and all claims pending against the Generic Defendants as of the date of this Order should not be dismissed, with prejudice, in their entirety. 2. For any new action docketed in this MDL on or after the date of this Order which purports to assert a claim against a Generic Defendant, the Clerk of the Court shall immediately provide a copy of this Order to the plaintiffs in said action, and the plaintiffs shall comply with the above SHOW CAUSE Order within fourteen (14) days after the date on which this Order is served. 3. It is not necessary for plaintiffs subject to this Order to submit papers addressing the arguments raised in Plaintiffs' Consolidated Memorandum in Opposition to Generic Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. [MDL Record No. 568] That Memorandum shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference for all plaintiffs subject to this Order. 4. If the Court determines that a reply is needed from any of the Generic Defendants to the plaintiffs' response to this Show Cause Order, it will be directed by separate Order. 5. The Generic Defendants need not move, answer, or otherwise respond to Complaints or Amended Complaints until further Order of the Court. 6. This Order shall not apply to cases with pending Motions for Remand, or to cases that have been removed from state court, until all Motions for Remand in those cases are resolved. 05/24/2013	56	NOTICE: During the hearing held on May 6, 2013, the parties were requested to designate one plaintiffs representative and one defendants' representative to jointly contact the Court for the purpose of selecting a date for an informal status conference. [MDL Record No. 2625] Following the hearing, Richard Schulte was designated as the plaintiffs' representative with Mary Larrimore being designated as the defendants' representative. The call was scheduled for May 16, 2013, beginning at 12:15 p.m. Although Mr. Schulte and the undersigned joined the call at the appointed time, Ms. Larrimore did not. Later, the parties submitted proposed dates for the informal status conference; however, those dates conflict with other matters. Therefore, as a result of Ms. Larrimore's failure to participate or have other counsel participate in the May 16, 2013, telephone conference, the Court will be unable to schedule the matter prior to June 30, 2013. The purpose of this Notice is to provide the parties with the reason the informal status conference will not be scheduled. Signed by Judge Danny C. Reeves on 5/24/2013. 05/28/2013	60	ORDER: It has come to Court's attention that a number of the attorneys are not currently registered for an account on the EDKY Electronic Filing System. Pursuant to Court's August 30, 2011 Order Regarding Practice and Procedure, every attorney with a case in this multidistrict litigation is required to register for electronic filing. As each new case is consolidated with MDL 2226, clerk sends an "Electronic Filing Attorney Registration Form" to the attorney(s), with instructions to return form w/in 20 days. However, it appears that the following attorneys have yet to register for electronic filing, despite having had more than 20 days to do so, and are therefore past-due in this regard: John P. Freedenberg, Amanda J. Greenburg, Kevin F. Guyette, Nellie Hestin, Douglas Wayne Robinson, Regis W. Stafford. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that each of the attorneys listed above is given 10 days from entry of this Order either to submit his or her Electronic Filing Attorney Registration Form, or SHOW CAUSE why he or she should not be

06/18/2013	71	ORDER: On May 28, 2013 and June 3, 2013, respectively, Court entered orders listing the attorneys of record, as of those dates, had failed to meet the twenty-day deadline for registering with Court's electronic filing system. (MDL Record Nos. 2684 , 2691) Court gave each attorney a period of ten days either to submit his or her Registration Form or show cause why he or she should not be subject to monetary penalties. The ten day period has elapsed, and the following attorneys have not complied: Brian S. Inamine; Douglas Wayne Robinson. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that each of the above-listed attorneys is fined $100. Additionally, each is given 7 days from the entry of this Order to come into compliance with Court's prior Orders, before he will be subject to additional monetary penalties. Signed by Judge Danny C. 07/30/2013	80	MINUTE ENTRY ORDER FOR STATUS CONFERENCE held on 7/29/2013 before Judge Danny C. Reeves; 1)Parties indicated that new deadlines for plas' fact sheets, product identification discovery responses, and discovery concerning cumulative/latent injuries have been agreed upon for the cases in which they were overdue, with the exception of Shaw, et al. v. Eli Lilly & Co., et al. (Civil Action No. 2:12-243-DCR) and Zgoda v. Eli Lilly & Co., et al. (Civil Action No. 2:13-66-DCR). In the event that the parties are unable to agree to a new deadline for those plas to provide the required discovery, the defs may file a motion requesting the entry of an order directing the plas to show cause why their claims should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute; 2) Xanodyne has reached an agreement w/plas regarding search terms for their Electronically Stored Information ("ESI"). If Eli Lilly and the plas cannot resolve their dispute over ESI search terms, they shall file simultaneous briefs on this issue on or before 9/3/2013. Responses will be due 10 days thereafter, at which time the briefs will stand submitted; 3)Parties are directed to confer and submit proposed dates for the next Status Conference.
