To expedite the fair disposition of this action and to discourage wasteful pretrial activities, the Court directs that the attorneys or parties, if appearing pro se, comply with the following procedures:

I. INITIAL DISCLOSURES

Notwithstanding Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1)(B), the parties are HEREBY ORDERED to provide Initial Disclosures as follows:

No later than June 9, 2014:

A. Plaintiff's Disclosures:

Plaintiff shall provide Defendant with the name and, if known, the location or other identifying information (such as inmate number, job classification or assignment) of each

1 individual likely to have information about the events described in his complaint or his claims of
2 injury or damage. In addition, Plaintiff shall describe, generally, the information each individual
3 so identified is believed to possess.

4 Plaintiff shall also provide copies of, or a list describing (by category and location), all
5 documents or other tangible things in his possession, custody or control¹ which he may use to
6 support the allegation(s) in his complaint, or his claims or injury of damage.

7
8 B. Defendant(s) Initial Disclosures:

9 Defendant(s) shall provide Plaintiff with the name and, if known, the location or other
10 identifying information (such as inmate number, job classification or institutional assignment) of 11 each individual likely to have information about Defendant(s)' claims or defenses, or who will
12 be used to support Defendant(s)' version of the events described in the complaint. In addition,
13 Defendant(s) shall describe, generally, the information each individual so identified is believed 14 to possess.

15 Defendant(s) shall provide to Plaintiff copies of all documents and other materials in the 16 care, custody, or control of any Defendant(s) or the California Department of Corrections and 17 Rehabilitation ("CDCR") related to the claims and defenses in the case.

18 Such documents and materials shall include, but are not limited to, (a) documents and
19 materials upon which Defendant(s) rely in support of their defense of the action, (b) grievances
20 and appeals thereof, determinations of grievances and appeals, and (c) reports of completed
21 investigations by CDCR or others. If Defendants intend on filing a motion relating to Plaintiff's
22 failure to exhaust, initial disclosures must include related grievances and appeals, and all
23 responses. Simultaneous with disclosure to Plaintiff, Defense counsel shall file with the Court
24 either a copy of any cover letter (without attachments) or a statement that the disclosures
25 required herein have been completed.
26

28

¹ Property is deemed within a party's possession, custody or control if the party has actual possession, custody or control thereof, or the legal right to obtain the property on demand. Allen v. Woodford, 2007 WL 309945, *2 (E.D. Cal. 2007).

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e), the parties must supplement or correct
2 the disclosures in a timely manner, and failure to do so may result in the inability to present such
3 evidence in support of a motion, or at trial. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(c).

4 II. DEPOSITIONS

5 Defendant(s) are granted leave to take the deposition of Plaintiff, or any other
6 incarcerated witness, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2)(B). Defense counsel
7 shall provide Plaintiff with notice of the date of the deposition by mailing such notice to Plaintiff
8 at least fifteen (15) days prior to the scheduled deposition date. The deposition may not
9 commence until at least ten (10) days after Defense counsel has filed their proof of compliance
10 as required in subparagraph (B) above. PLAINTIFF SHALL TAKE NOTICE that disagreement
11 with any directive of security staff at the correctional facility at which the deposition is 12 scheduled is not a ground on which Plaintiff may refuse to answer appropriate questions, and the 13 failure of Plaintiff to attend, be sworn, and answer appropriate questions may result in sanctions.
14 Such sanctions may include dismissal of the action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
15 37. Objections made in good faith in accordance with governing rules are permissible.

17 III. SCHEDULE AND DEADLINES

18 A. The issue of exhaustion must be raised by either (1) a procedurally proper motion
19 for summary judgment; or (2) a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) if the failure to 20 exhaust is clear on the face of the complaint. If the parties believe that discovery related to 21 exhaustion is necessary, they may request such discovery pursuant to Rule 56(d). Requests for 22 limited discovery must be made within thirty (30) days from the date of service of this order.
23 Motions relating to exhaustion must be filed on or before July 24, 2014.

25 B. The deadline for amending pleadings is August 25, 2014.

26 C. All discovery shall be completed on or before September 22, 2014. Motions to 27 compel must also be filed by this date.

28 D. Dispositive motions must be filed on or before November 21, 2014.

1 IV. DISCOVERY ISSUES

2 A. Written discovery must be served at least thirty (30) days prior to the close of 3 discovery. Responses must be served thirty (30) days after service of the discovery request.
4 Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(b)(2), 34(b)(2)(A). In objecting to discovery requests, Defendant(s) should
5 state their objections in plain language that a pro se party will likely understand.

6 B. As stated above, motions to compel must be filed on or before September 22,
7 2014. The meet and confer requirement set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(a)(1) and
8 Local Rule 251(b) is waived. Voluntary compliance is encouraged, however.

9 V. EXTENSIONS OF TIME

10 Requests for extensions of the deadlines set forth in this Discovery and Scheduling Order
11 must be filed on or before the expiration of the date in question. These deadlines are firm
12 and will not be extended by the Court except upon a showing of good cause. Fed. R. Civ. P.
13 16(b)(4).
