6 GENERAL

7 8. Other than the parties' attorneys and any paralegal, clerical and secretarial personnel 8 regularly employed by them, any person to whom Confidential documents or their information are to 9 be disclosed shall be provided and required to read a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order before

15 disclosure. Parties shall be responsible for internally tracking the identities of those individuals to 16 whom copies of documents marked Confidential are given. Either party or the court may request the 17 identities of said individuals upon the final termination of the litigation or if it is able to demonstrate a 18 good faith basis that a party, or an agent thereof, has breached the terms of the Stipulated Protective 19 Order. Upon such a showing, a party shall produce to any other party or the court copies of such 20 agreements for inspection and copying within three business days.

1 This envelope is sealed pursuant to the order of the Court and contains Confidential
2 information filed in this case by [name of party] and is not to be opened nor the content
3 thereof displayed or revealed except by order of the Court.

4 10. The designation of documents or information as "Confidential" and the subsequent 5 production thereof is without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose the admissibility of the 6 designated document or information.

7 11. A party may apply to the Court for an order that information or materials labeled 8 "Confidential" are not, in fact, confidential. Prior to applying to the Court for such an order, the party
9 seeking to reclassify Confidential information shall meet and confer with the other party and notice all 10 individuals to whom the documents pertain. Until the matter is resolved by the parties or the Court, the 11 information in question shall continue to be treated according to its designation under the terms of this

27
28

1 14. Should any information designated confidential be disclosed, through inadvertence or 2 otherwise, to any person not authorized to receive it under this Stipulated Protective Order, the 3 disclosing person(s) shall promptly (a) inform all parties of the recipient(s) and the circumstances of 4 the unauthorized disclosure to the relevant producing person(s) and (b) use best efforts to bind the 5 recipient(s) to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order. No information shall lose its confidential
6 status because it was inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed to a person not authorized to receive it
7 under this Stipulated Protective Order.
8

9 15. After the conclusion of this litigation, all documents and materials, in whatever form 10 stored or reproduced containing confidential information will remain confidential, and if filed with the 11 Court shall remain under seal. All documents and materials produced pursuant to this Stipulated 12 Protective Order shall be destroyed. All parties agree to ensure that all persons to whom confidential
13 documents or materials were disclosed shall be destroyed. "Conclusion" of this litigation means a final 14 termination of the case following a trial or settlement and resolution of any appeal.

15 16. No later than 30 days after the conclusion of this litigation, all persons having received 16 the confidential documents shall be advised to destroy said documents by the party who produced 17 them.

18 17. This Stipulated Protective Order shall remain in full force and effect and shall continue 19 to be binding on all parties and affected persons after this litigation terminates, subject to any

21 Court having jurisdiction over an appeal of this action. After this action terminates, any party may seek 22 to modify or dissolve this Stipulated Protective Order by Court order for good cause shown or by the 23 stipulation of the parties.

24 18. The Court shall retain jurisdiction, even after this lawsuit terminates, (a) to make such 25 amendments, modifications and additions to this Stipulated Protective Order as it may from time to 26 time deem appropriate upon good cause shown; and, (b) to adjudicate any dispute respecting the 27 improper use or disclosure of confidential material.
