UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DELIA WILSON, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
CONAIR CORPORATION,
Defendant.

Case No. 1:14-cv-00894-WBS-SAB
ORDER AFTER INFORMAL TELEPHONIC
DISCOVERY DISPUTE CONFERENCE

On October 8, 2015, the Court held an informal telephonic discovery dispute conference. The parties dispute the scope of certain discovery requests from Plaintiffs regarding the design specifications, manufacturing specifications, and advertising relating to 45 models of products produced by Defendant.

The Court has determined that a more succinct description of the materials sought by Plaintiffs is necessary to facilitate a proper analysis of the parties' dispute. Accordingly, the Court will order Plaintiffs to provide Defendant with a succinct description of the specific materials sought through discovery. The Court will give the parties additional time to meet and confer amongst themselves. If the parties cannot resolve any outstanding disputes on their own, they may request another informal discovery dispute conference with the Court or may order counsel to physically attend a discovery dispute conference in Fresno.
