17 Defendants request a 45-day extension of time in which to file an answer to the 18 complaint, and plaintiffs do not oppose this request. Plaintiff is scheduled for interview with 19 United States Citizenship and Immigration Services on March 9, 2015. Because of the potential
20 that this matter will resolve at the administrative level, the parties stipulate to extend the answer
21 deadline and request that the status conference date be extended as well.

ORDER

Pursuant to this joint stipulation, the answer date is extended to May 11, 2015, and the status conference is rescheduled to June 11, 2015 at 9:00 a.m.

The Court does not contemplate granting any further extensions of time to file a responsive pleading or to continue the scheduling conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 26, 2015
