

1 Plaintiff, Robert Feiger (“Plaintiff”), and Defendants, Marlene Robicheaux-Smith,
2 Natalie Clark, and Antoneya Graves (“Defendants,” and together with Plaintiff, “the Parties”),
3 together request that the Court extend the dispositional document filing deadline as follows:

4 1. On November 22, 2017, the Court issued an Order Following Settlement
5 (“Order”) noting that this matter had settled, and requiring that the parties file dispositional
6 documents within 30 days following service of the Order, which date is therefore December
7 21, 2017. (Dkt. 109.)

8 2. Defendants agreed to prepare the settlement documents. After working together
9 diligently to agree to the proposed terms, Defendants submitted to Plaintiff a proposed 10 settlement agreement on December 12, 2017. Plaintiff requested changes be made to the terms 11 of settlement, and the Parties were negotiating those final terms. Those negotiations have 12 taken longer than anticipated given the intervening holidays and difficulty communicating with 13 all parties involved in settlement.

14 3. The Parties previously requested an extension of time to file dispositional 15 documents, which request was granted and the current deadline is now January 31, 2018. (Dkt.
16 111.)

17 4. Defendants were able to obtain signatures on the Agreement on January 26, 18 2018, and have relayed their signatures to Plaintiff’s counsel. Plaintiff’s counsel now needs
19 time to meet with Plaintiff, go over the terms of the Agreement, and assuming it is agreeable, 20 obtain Plaintiff’s signature.

21 5. Accordingly, subject to Court approval, the Parties stipulate to extend the time
22 within which dispositional documents must be filed to February 23, 2018.
