

1 See Local Rule 130. If a document is stapled behind another document, it will not be filed and 2 will not be entered on this Court's docket.

3 3. All documents filed with the Court must be submitted with an additional legible 4 conformed copy for the Court's use. See Local Rule 133(d)(2). A document submitted without
5 an extra copy for the Court's use will be stricken. If the filing party wishes the Court to return 6 a file-stamped copy, he or she must include an additional copy for that purpose (i.e., submit an 7 original and two copies, one for the Court's use and one to be returned). The Court cannot 8 provide copy or mailing service for a party, even for an indigent plaintiff proceeding in forma
9 pauperis. Therefore, if the filing party wishes a file-stamped copy returned, the party must also 10 provide an envelope with adequate postage pre-paid. Copies of documents from the Court file 11 may be obtained at the cost of fifty cents per page.

12 4. After any defendants have appeared in an action by filing a pleading responsive to 13 the complaint (i.e., an answer or a motion to dismiss), all documents filed with the Court must 14 include a certificate of service stating that a copy of the document was served on the opposing 15 party. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 5; Local Rule 135(c). A document submitted without the required
16 proof of service will be stricken. Where a party is represented, service on the party's attorney of 17 record constitutes effective service.

18 5. All filings must bear the file number assigned to the action, followed by the initials 19 of the District Court Judge and the Magistrate Judge to whom the case is assigned. Where 20 Plaintiff simultaneously pursues more than one action, he or she must file separate original 21 documents and the appropriate number of copies in each action to which the document pertains.
22 Documents submitted listing more than one case number in the caption will be stricken.

23 6. The Court cannot serve as a repository for the parties' evidence. The parties may 24 not file evidence with the Court until the course of litigation brings the evidence into question (for 25 example, on a motion for summary judgment, at trial, or when requested by the Court). Evidence
26 improperly submitted to the Court will be stricken and returned to the party. No discovery 27 may be conducted until an answer is filed and the court issues an order opening discovery.
28 Discovery propounded on a party is self-executing, and must be served directly on the party from

1 whom discovery is sought; parties should not file copies of their discovery with the court. See
2 Local Rules 250.1, 250.2, 250.3. Discovery documents inappropriately submitted to the court
3 will be stricken. Where the response to discovery is unsatisfactory, the party seeking discovery 4 may file a motion to compel discovery, including a copy of the discovery propounded and the 5 response thereto. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37.

6 7. All Court deadlines will be strictly enforced. Requests for time extensions must 7 state the reason the extension is needed and must be filed with the Court before the deadline in 8 question. See Local Rule 144.

9 8. A plaintiff proceeding in propria persona has an affirmative duty to keep the 10 Court and opposing parties informed of his or her current address. If a plaintiff moves and fails to 11 file a notice of change of address, service of Court orders at plaintiff's prior address shall 12 constitute effective notice. See Local Rule 182(f). If mail directed to plaintiff is returned by the 13 U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable, the Court will not attempt to re-mail it. If the address is not 14 updated within 60 days of the mail being returned, the action will be dismissed for failure to 15 prosecute. See Local Rule 183(b).

16 9. Due to the press of business, the Court cannot respond to individual requests for 17 the status of cases. Any such requests will be denied. So long as the parties inform the Court of 18 any address changes in compliance with Local Rule 183(b), the Court will notify the parties of 19 any Court action taken in their case.

20 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of 21 Civil Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court, may result in the imposition of sanctions including, 22 but not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.
