On November 8, 2016, the Court ordered the Clerk to issue summonses to the defendants and directed the plaintiff to submit service documents. (Doc. 27) The Court’s order was returned as undeliverable and the plaintiff did not respond. Since this time, the plaintiff made no effort to update his address with the Court. Thus, on February 2, 2017, the Court recommended the matter be dismissed for the plaintiff’s failure to notify it of his change of address. (Doc. 31) The Court provided Plaintiff an opportunity to object but he did not. Id. More than a month later, on March 9, 2017, the Court dismissed the action. (Doc. 32)

Consequently, plaintiff’s current motion for default (Doc. 34) is DISREGARDED as MOOT. Moreover, no further filings will be accepted into this closed case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
