Plaintiff Alan Austin White seeks to proceed in forma pauperis with an action for judicial review of the administrative decision denying an application for Social Security benefits. Pending before the Court are the complaint and motion to proceed in forma pauperis, which were filed on September 8, 2015 . For the following reasons, the Court finds service of the complaint is appropriate.

I. Proceeding in forma pauperis

The Court may authorize the commencement of an action without prepayment of fees “by a person who submits an affidavit that includes a statement of all assets such person . . . possesses [and] that the person is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). The Court reviewed the application and finds Plaintiff satisfies the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Therefore, Plaintiff’s motion to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED.

1 II. Screening Requirement

2 When an individual seeks to proceed in forma pauperis, the Court is required to review the 3 complaint and shall dismiss a complaint, or portion of the complaint, if it is “frivolous, malicious or 4 fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or . . . seeks monetary relief from a defendant
5 who is immune from such relief.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b); 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). A plaintiff’s claim 6 is frivolous “when the facts alleged rise to the level of the irrational or the wholly incredible, whether or 7 not there are judicially noticeable facts available to contradict them.” Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S.
8 25, 32-33 (1992).

9 III. Pleading Standards

10 General rules for pleading complaints are governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A 11 pleading must include a statement affirming the court’s jurisdiction, “a short and plain statement of the 12 claim showing the pleader is entitled to relief; and . . . a demand for the relief sought, which may 13 include relief in the alternative or different types of relief.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a).

14 A complaint must give fair notice and state the elements of the plaintiff’s claim in a plain and 15 succinct manner. Jones v. Cmty Redevelopment Agency, 733 F.2d 646, 649 (9th Cir. 1984). The 16 purpose of the complaint is to give the defendant fair notice of the claims against him, and the grounds 17 upon which the complaint stands. Swierkiewicz v. Sorema N.A., 534 U.S. 506, 512 (2002). The 18 Supreme Court noted,

19 Rule 8 does not require detailed factual allegations, but it demands more than an 20 unadorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation. A pleading that offers 21 labels and conclusions or a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will 22 not do. Nor does a complaint suffice if it tenders naked assertions devoid of further 23 factual enhancement.
24 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678-79 (2009) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). Vague 25 and conclusory allegations do not support a cause of action. Ivey v. Board of Regents, 673 F.2d 266, 26 268 (9th Cir. 1982). The Court clarified further,

27 [A] complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to “state a claim 28 to relief that is plausible on its face.” [Citation]. A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged. [Citation]. The plausibility standard is not akin to a “probability requirement,” but it asks for more than a sheer possibility that a defendant has acted unlawfully. [Citation]. Where a complaint

1 pleads facts that are “merely consistent with” a defendant’s liability, it “stops short of 2 the line between possibility and plausibility of ‘entitlement to relief.’

3 Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679 (citations omitted). When factual allegations are well-pled, a court should 4 assume their truth and determine whether the facts would make the plaintiff entitled to relief; legal 5 conclusions are not entitled to the same assumption of truth. Id. The Court may grant leave to amend a 6 complaint to the extent deficiencies of the complaint can be cured by an amendment. Lopez v. Smith, 7 203 F.3d 1122, 1127-28 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc).

8 IV. Discussion and Analysis

9 Plaintiff seeks review of a decision by the Commissioner of Social Security denying disability 10 benefits. (Doc. 1) The Court may have jurisdiction pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), which provides in 11 relevant part:

12 Any individual, after any final decision of the Commissioner made after a hearing to 13 which he was a party, irrespective of the amount in controversy, may obtain a review of 14 such decision by a civil action commenced within sixty days after the mailing to him of 15 such decision or within such further time as the Commissioner may allow. Such action 16 shall be brought in the district court of the United States for the judicial district in 17 which the plaintiff resides, or has his principal place of business . . . The court shall have power to enter, upon the pleadings and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, with or without remanding the cause for a rehearing.

18 Id. (emphasis added). Except as provided by statute, “[n]o findings of fact or decision of the 19 Commissioner shall be reviewed by any person, tribunal, or governmental agency.” 42 U.S.C. § 405(h).

20 Plaintiff alleges that the Appeals Council denied his request for review on June 16, 2015, at 21 which time the decision of the administrative law judge became the decision of the Commissioner.
22 (Doc. 1 at 2) Therefore, Plaintiff’s request for review would be due within 65 days of the date of 23 Appeal’s Council’s notice, or no later than September 21, 2015. See 42 U.S.C. §405(g) (noting that a 24 claimant is “presumed” to have received the notice of denial within “5 days after the date of such 25 notice”). Thus, Plaintiff’s request for judicial review is timely, and the Court has jurisdiction over the 26 matter pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).
