

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RODERICK WILLIAM LEAR,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHNATHAN AKANNO, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:15-cv-01903-DAD-JDP
ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF’S
MOTIONS FOR MISCELLANEOUS RELIEF
ECF Nos. 100, 101

On March 11, 2020, plaintiff filed two motions to terminate his counsel. ECF Nos. 100, 101. Plaintiff’s counsel was terminated on August 2, 2019, as counsel had been appointed solely for the purposes of settlement. Plaintiff further requests that the dispositive motions deadline be vacated because he does not wish to file any motion, go to trial, or participate in discovery and would like the case to go to settlement. ECF No. 101. Formal settlement has been attempted without success. ECF No. 93. Plaintiff—the party who filed this action—cannot litigate without complying with certain requirements. Thus, plaintiff’s motions are denied as moot and for failure to provide good cause. ECF Nos. 100, 101.

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 13, 2020

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

No. 204.