UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SHIRLEY BROUSSARD,

Plaintiff,

v.

3M COMPANY, AS SUCCESSOR BY
MERGER TO MINNESOTA MINING &
MANUFACTURING COMPANY
AND/OR ITS PREDECESSORS/
SUCCESSORS IN INTEREST,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1-16-cv-00462-SEH

ORDER

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff’s Notice of Request to Seal Documents (Doc. No. 68) by which Plaintiff seeks to file certain documents under seal to be considered by the Court in addressing Plaintiff’s pending Motion in Limine No. 2 (Doc. No. 64), No-Evidence Motion for Partial Summary Judgment Regarding the Enforcement of 30 C.F.R. 11.140-5 (Doc. No. 66), and Motion for Summary Judgment on Negligence Per Se (Doc. No. 67).

ORDERED:

The request to file under seal is GRANTED subject to and conditioned upon modification of the Protective Order (Doc. No. 21) as follows:

“Filing of documents under seal shall be conducted in compliance with L.R. 141. No document may be filed under seal, or considered by the Court or relied upon by any party, absent

1 an order of Court so permitting.”

2 “All parties understand and accept that any and all documents reviewed by the Court or
3 relied upon by the Court, in whole or in part, in addressing or resolving any issue before the 4 Court, including documents filed under seal, will be made public contemporaneously with the 5 Court’s ruling on the issue.”

7 “None of the terms or conditions of any protective order shall apply to any information or 8 documentation which hereafter becomes subject to public disclosure by order of Court or 9 agreement of the parties.”

10 FURTHER ORDERED:

11 All parties are notified that the Court will apply and enforce the provisions in the three 12 paragraphs stated above within quotation marks in resolving any issue before the Court. Any 13 counsel having objection to implementation and enforcement of the three within quotation marks
14 paragraphs stated above shall so notify the Court forthwith in writing, in which case the 15 Protective Order (Doc. No. 21) will be vacated in its entirety.
