

1 The matter has been assigned to United States District Judge Lawrence J. O'Neill. To 2 facilitate the efficient resolution of prisoner civil rights cases, Judge O'Neill requires that all
3 such cases be set for trial within three years of Defendants' first appearance. Accordingly, 4 pursuant to Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court herein sets a 5 schedule for trial of this matter.

6 The parties are advised that nothing herein supersedes the provisions of the Court's 7 prior discovery and scheduling order. To the contrary, the parties are required to abide by 8 that order and to pursue any discovery, amendments, or motions with diligence. In all such 9 matters, the parties should manage their efforts so that they are prepared to proceed to trial
10 as scheduled. The parties are warned that a continuance of the trial date is unlikely, and will 11 only be granted upon a showing of good cause and a determination that, despite the parties'
12 best efforts, proceeding to trial as scheduled is impracticable.

13 The parties are required to file pretrial statements in accordance with Local Rule 281
14 and the schedule set forth herein. In addition, Plaintiff must make a particularized showing to 15 obtain the attendance of witnesses at trial. The procedures and requirements for doing so 16 are outlined in detail below.

17 Failure to comply with the provisions of this Order may result in the imposition 18 of sanctions which could include dismissal of the action or entry of default.

19 I. Special Procedures for Plaintiff's Witnesses

20 At the trial of this case, Plaintiff must be prepared to introduce evidence to prove each 21 of the alleged facts that support claims made in the lawsuit. In general, there are two kinds of 22 trial evidence: (1) exhibits and (2) testimony of witnesses. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to 23 produce all of the evidence to prove his case, whether that evidence is in the form of exhibits
24 or testimony from witnesses. If Plaintiff wants to call witnesses to testify, he must comply with 25 the following procedures to ensure that the witnesses will appear at trial and be available to
27
28

1 testify.<sup>1</sup> Failure to comply with the procedures set forth below may result in the Court
2 precluding testimony from Plaintiff's witnesses.

3 A. Procedures for Obtaining Attendance of Incarcerated Witnesses Who Agree to 4 Testify Voluntarily

5 An incarcerated witness who agrees to come to court and testify at trial can only do so 6 if the Court orders the warden or other custodian to allow him or her to be transported to 7 court. The Court will not issue such an order unless it is satisfied that: (a) the prospective 8 witness is willing to attend; and (b) he or she has actual knowledge of relevant facts.

9 If Plaintiff wants to call such witnesses, Plaintiff must serve and file with the pretrial
10 statement a written motion for a court order directing that the witnesses be brought to trial.
11 The motion must: (1) state the name, address, and prison identification number of each such 12 witness; and (2) include declarations showing that each witness is willing to testify and that 13 each witness has actual knowledge of relevant facts. The motion should be entitled "Motion 14 for Attendance of Incarcerated Witnesses."

15 The willingness of the prospective witness to come and testify can be shown in one of 16 two ways: (a) the Plaintiff can swear under penalty of perjury that the prospective witness 17 has informed him that he or she is willing to testify voluntarily without being subpoenaed; if 18 so, the declaration must state when and where the witness so advised the Plaintiff; or (b)
19 Plaintiff can serve and file a declaration, signed under penalty of perjury by the prospective 20 witness, in which the witness states he or she is willing to testify without being subpoenaed.

21 The prospective witness's actual knowledge of relevant facts also can be shown in 22 one of two ways: (a) if Plaintiff has actual firsthand knowledge that the prospective witness 23 was an eyewitness or an ear-witness to the relevant facts (for example, if the incident
24 occurred in Plaintiff's cell and Plaintiff saw that a cellmate was present at the time and 25 observed the incident), Plaintiff can swear by declaration under penalty of perjury that the

26
27 <sup>1</sup> Notwithstanding the requirements set forth herein, it is within the Court's discretion to grant a motion for the 28 attendance of incarcerated witnesses if the moving party has shown the witnesses have relevant information and the Court determines the witnesses' presence will substantially further the resolution of the case. Wiggins
v. County of Alameda, 717 F.2d 466, 468 n.1 (9th Cir. 1983).

1 prospective witness has actual knowledge; or (b) Plaintiff can serve and file a declaration 2 signed under penalty of perjury by the prospective witness in which the witness describes the 3 relevant facts to which he or she was an eye- or ear-witness.

4 Whether the declaration is made by the Plaintiff or by the prospective witness, it must 5 be specific about the incident, when and where it occurred, who was present, and how the 6 prospective witness happened to be in a position to see or hear what occurred.

7 The Court has discretion to grant a motion for the attendance of incarcerated 8 witnesses if the moving party shows that the witnesses have relevant information and the 9 Court finds that the witnesses' presence will substantially further the resolution of the case.
10 Wiggins, 717 F.2d at 468 n.1. The Court will review and rule on the motion for attendance of 11 incarcerated witnesses, specifying which will be brought to court. Subsequently, the Court 12 will order the witness's custodian to bring the witness to court.

13 Motions for the attendance of incarcerated witnesses, if any, must be filed on or 14 before September 25, 2020. Oppositions, if any, must be filed on or before October 23, 15 2020.

16 B. Procedures for Obtaining Attendance of Incarcerated Witnesses Who Refuse to 17 Testify Voluntarily

18 If Plaintiff seeks to obtain the attendance of incarcerated witnesses who refuse to 19 testify voluntarily, Plaintiff should submit, by September 25, 2020 a motion for the attendance 20 of such witnesses. Such motion should be in the form described above. In addition, the 21 party must indicate in the motion that the incarcerated witnesses are not willing to testify 22 voluntarily.

23 C. Procedures for Obtaining Attendance of Unincarcerated Witnesses Who Agree
24 to Testify Voluntarily

25 Plaintiff does not need Court permission or a Court Order to have unincarcerated 26 witnesses appear and testify if the witnesses are willing to do so voluntarily (and Plaintiff has 27 properly identified the witnesses in his Pretrial Statement). It is Plaintiff's sole responsibility to 28

1 notify the witness of the time and date of trial and arrange for his or her presence. The Court
2 need not be involved.

3 D. Procedures for Obtaining Attendance of Unincarcerated Witnesses Who 4 Refuse to Testify Voluntarily

5 If a prospective witness is not incarcerated, and he or she refuses to testify voluntarily,
6 the witness must be served with a subpoena. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45. In addition, the party
7 seeking the witness's presence must deposit fees for the witness in advance of subpoenaing 8 the witness. Id. In the case of an incarcerated witness, the fee that must be deposited is 9 the daily witness fee of $40.00 plus the witness's travel expenses. 28 U.S.C. § 1821.

10 If Plaintiff wishes to obtain the attendance of one or more incarcerated witnesses
11 who refuse to testify voluntarily, Plaintiff must first notify the Court in writing of the name and 12 location of each incarcerated witness. Plaintiff is to notify the Court of the names and 13 locations of such witnesses on or before September 25, 2020.

14 The Court will calculate the travel expense for each such witness and notify Plaintiff of 15 the amount(s) to be deposited for each. Plaintiff must then, for each witness, submit a money
16 order made payable to the witness for the full amount of the witness's travel expenses plus
17 the daily witness fee of $40.00. The subpoena will not be served on the incarcerated
18 witness by the United States Marshal unless the money order is tendered to the Court. There
19 is no legal basis for using public funds to cover such expenses in civil cases even for parties 20 proceeding in forma pauperis.

21 If Plaintiff wishes to have the Marshal serve any incarcerated witnesses who refuse
22 to testify voluntarily, Plaintiff must submit the money orders to the Court on or before 23 November 6, 2020.
