The parties hereby stipulate, through their undersigned attorneys, that, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant shall have an extension of time until August 28, 2017, in which to file her answering brief, with all subsequent deadlines set forth in the Court's scheduling order also extended accordingly. Defendant requests this extension because the originally assigned OGC attorney took extended leave abruptly, necessitating the sudden transfer of her cases to other attorneys, on top of their regular caseloads.

When cases are assigned initially at OGC, they are automatically linked to the task calendar by the action taken by our paralegals. That did not happen in this case because it was a reassignment. Although the undersigned OGC attorney was added as attorney of record in this case, he mistakenly neglected to calendar it with his regular caseload, which includes six district court briefs due in the coming two weeks alone. He therefore begs the Court's indulgence for additional time to review the record, proceedings, and opening brief. The parties stipulate in good faith, with no intent to delay proceedings unduly.
