UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

LOUIS A. ALARCON,

Plaintiff,

v.

D. DAVEY, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:16-cv-01461-LJO-JLT

ORDER TO SUBMIT EVIDENCE

(Doc. 27)

21-DAY DEADLINE

is under consideration by the Court. The Court has reviewed the pleadings and evidence related to defendants' motion for summary judgment, which asserts that the plaintiff failed to exhaust administrative remedies. (Doc. 27) The Court notes that though both sides submitted the logs for the plaintiff's confidential mail for November and December 2015 (Doc. 27-6, pp. 62-63 with Doc. 34, pp. 11-12), they did not provide the logs for the pivotal dates. Accordingly, within 21 days, the Court ORDERS the parties to file the missing mail logs and any documents they contend would assist the Court including, for example, tracking logs, receipts, and the like that document the confidential mail the plaintiff received from May 2015 through the end of that year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 5, 2019
