STIPULATION

The parties to this action jointly, through their respective attorneys of record, stipulate as follows:

- On November 20, 2017, an order was issued by the Court granting Plaintiff leave to submit her entire oppositions to Defendants' Motions for Summary Judgment (Doc. 65). From the date of submission, the parties were given 14 days to meet and confer on and submit to chambers a jointly agreed upon redacted version to be entered into the public record. If the parties fail to agree on a redacted version, they will each submit their separate proposals for redactions along with a brief statement outlining their differences to chambers for review.

1 2. The parties now request that this order also include Defendants replies to Plaintiff's
2 oppositions, including all supporting documents, under seal to continue to protect the
3 information that Defendant Anderson is alleging as confidential. From the date of submission,
4 the parties will then have 14 days to meet and confer on and submit to chambers a jointly
5 agreed upon redacted version to be entered into the public record. If the parties fail to agree on 6 a redacted version, they will each submit their separate proposals for redactions along with a
7 brief statement outlining their differences to chambers for review.

8 SO STIPULATED.
