SCHEDULING ORDER; [PROPOSED]
ORDER GRANTING IN PART

(Doc. 94)

29 The parties to the above-captioned action, by and through their attorneys of record, hereby 30 enter into the below stipulation with regard to the following facts and circumstances:

31 WHEREAS, the parties have been actively advancing this case since the Consent Forms
32 were returned in late February 2019 by opt-ins, including exchanging multiple sets of written
33 discovery, exchanging thousands of pages of documents and data, and identifying viable deposition
34 dates;

1 WHEREAS, the parties are presently meeting and conferring over Defendant's pending
2 discovery responses to attempt to avoid seeking Court intervention;

3 WHEREAS, Attorney Briana Kim is currently on maternity leave for a couple of months
4 and will be unavailable;

5 WHEREAS, the parties have not yet been able to coordinate deposition dates in light of the 6 pending written discovery issues that need to first be resolved;

7 WHEREAS, the parties therefore believe good cause exists to further amend the Court's
8 Scheduling Order to permit the parties to continue gathering discovery to adequately prepare this
9 case for trial;

10 IT IS STIPULATED THAT:

11 The parties' deadline to complete all discovery shall be continued from November 8, 2019
12 to August 10, 2020, or to a later date the Court deems appropriate and convenient. The parties'
13 deadline to disclose all expert witnesses, in writing, shall be continued from November 23, 2019 to 14 August 24, 2020, or to a later date the Court deems appropriate and convenient. The parties'
15 deadline to disclose all expert rebuttal witnesses, in writing, shall be continued from December 14,

17 shall be continued from January 6, 2020 to October 6, 2020, or to a later date the Court deems
18 appropriate and convenient.

19 The deadline to file non-dispositive motions and have them heard shall be continued from

24 convenient. The deadline for hearing on dispositive motions and class certification shall be 25 continued from April 7, 2020 to January 7, 2021, or to a later date the Court deems appropriate and 26 convenient.

1 ORDER

2 Though the parties report that they have an ongoing discovery dispute and have failed to set
3 and take depositions, they offer no explanation about these issues and offer no discussion why the 4 case schedule should be modified as dramatically as they suggest. Likewise, they do not
5 acknowledge that the Court has already amended the case schedule several times when the prior
6 attorney handled the case and once after current counsel took over. This case has lingered in this
7 Court for three years and this is far too long. Thus, the Court GRANTS the stipulation IN PART
8 as follows:

9 1. The parties SHALL complete all non-expert discovery no later than March 6,
10 2020;

11 2. The parties SHALL disclose experts no later than March 23, 2020 and rebuttal
12 experts no later than April 20, 2020. The parties SHALL complete all non-expert discovery no
13 later than May 29, 2020;

14 3. The parties SHALL file non-dispositive motions, if any, no later than June 12,
15 2020 and they will be heard no later than July 10, 2020.

16 4. The parties SHALL file dispositive motions and motions to certify the collection
17 under the FLSA, no later than July 24, 2020 and they will be heard no later than August 31, 18 2020.

19 5. The pretrial conference is CONTINUED to October 19, 2020 at 9:30 a.m.

20 6. The trial is CONTINUED to January 11, 2021 at 8:30 a.m.
