UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JOSE TRUJILLO,

 Plaintiff,

 v.

TRAVER MARKET, et al.

 Defendants.

Case No. 1:17-cv-00119-DAD-SAB

ORDER RE PLAINTIFF’S OBJECTION
TO DEFENDANTS’ SCHEDULING
REPORT

(ECF No. 20)

A scheduling conference is set for June 13, 2017 in this action. Pursuant to the Court’s scheduling order, a joint scheduling report was due one week prior to the scheduled hearing. On June 6, 2017, Plaintiff filed a scheduling report and declaration stating that defense counsel indicated he was not available to finish conferring on the joint report so Plaintiff filed a separate scheduling report. On June 7, 2017, Defendants filed a report which states it is a joint scheduling report. On this same date, Plaintiff filed an objection to that portion of Defendants’ scheduling report that indicates it is a joint report.

Having reviewed the scheduling reports filed by the parties, the Court recognizes that the report filed by Defendants is not a joint report. The Court is able to “cut through the rhetoric” in the parties pleading to address the scheduling issues presented by the parties.

1 The Court is familiar with the history of counsel representing the parties in this action.
2 Therefore, the Court advises the parties that it will not exercise playground jurisdiction in this
3 action. Counsel is expected to comply with Federal Rules and orders of the Court. Further, the
4 Court expects counsel to treat each other with professional courtesy which includes timely meeting
5 and conferring to ensure that deadlines established by the Court are met. Each party has a right to a
6 fair trial on the merits, but not at the expense of unprofessional conduct. The Court anticipates that
7 with this advisement no further such issues shall arise during the course of litigating this matter. If
8 the parties do not heed the Court's admonishment it will consider imposition of sanctions sua
9 sponte and/or require that counsel submit all future pleadings without the use of an adverb and/or 10 adjective.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
