20 I.

21 INTRODUCTION

22 Plaintiff Choon Rhey is a state prisoner proceeding pro se in this civil rights matter
23 pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff initiated this action on May 5, 2017 by filing a complaint.
24 (ECF No. 1.) Along with the complaint, Plaintiff filed an application to proceed in forma
25 pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. (ECF No. 2.) The matter was referred to a United States
26 Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 302.

27 Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 is 28 currently before the Court.

1 II.

2 LEGAL STANDARD

3 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) permits a plaintiff to bring a civil action “without prepayment of 4 fees or security thereof” if the plaintiff submits a financial affidavit that demonstrates the 5 plaintiff’s “is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor.” A prisoner seeking to bring a
6 civil action must, in addition to filing an affidavit, “submit a certified copy of the trust fund
7 account statement . . . for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint .
8 . . . obtained from the appropriate official of each prison at which the prisoner is or was confined.”
9 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2).

10 III.

11 DISCUSSION

12 Plaintiff has filed an application declaring that he is unable to pay the fees for these 13 proceeds or give security therefor, and that he is entitled to the relief sought in his complaint.
14 Plaintiff’s application is supported by a certified inmate statement report printed on May 17,
15 2017 by an official at San Quentin State Prison, where Plaintiff is currently housed. The 16 statement does not cover the entire six-month period preceding the filing of the complaint, but
17 instead only shows transactions as of April 1, 2017.

18 Plaintiff’s certified inmate statement report indicates that he currently has an available
19 sum of $1,135.55 on account to his credit at his institution. Specifically, Plaintiff’s beginning
20 balance as of April 1, 2017 was $1,397.16, and he has recently spent some funds on legal mail
21 ($8.81) and some funds on purchases at his institution ($252.80), leaving him with the current 22 available balance noted above. The application and supporting information further demonstrates
23 that Plaintiff has no dependents relying on him for financial support, and that he currently owes 24 no restitutions or fines, and has no other obligations or encumbrances.

25 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff has not provided a completed financial affidavit
26 reflecting his assets for the six-month period preceding the filing of his complaint, as required.
27 Furthermore, the information Plaintiff has provided reflects that he is financially able to prepay
28 the entire filing fee to commence this action. Although the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has

1 held that “the filing fee, while discretionary, should not take the prisoner’s last dollar.” Olivares
2 v. Marshall, 59 F.3d 109, 112 (9th Cir. 1995). In these circumstances Plaintiff has sufficient
3 funds to prepay the $400 filing fee with hundreds of dollars left over for his discretionary use.
4 Plaintiff has also recently spent funds on discretionary purchases. See id. (district court entitled
5 to consider an inmate’s choices in spending money, such as between a filing fee and comforts
6 purchased in the prison commissary).

7 Should Plaintiff have additional information to provide, he may notify the Court.
8 However, the Court has the authority to consider any reasons and circumstances for any change
9 in Plaintiff’s available assets and funds should the fund balance deplete considerably where he is 10 now unable to prepay the filing fee. See Collier v. Tatum, 722 F.2d 653, 656 (11th Cir. 1983)
11 (district court may consider an unexplained decrease in an inmate’s trust account, or whether an 12 inmate’s account has been depleted intentionally to avoid court costs).

13 IV.

14 CONCLUSION

15 Accordingly, the Clerk of the Court is HEREBY DIRECTED to randomly assign a 16 District Judge to this matter.

17 Further, IT IS HEREBY RECOMMENDED that Plaintiff’s application to proceed in 18 forma pauperis in this action, filed May 5, 2017 (ECF No. 2) be DENIED; and Plaintiff be 19 ordered to pay the filing fee.

20 These findings and recommendations are submitted to the district judge assigned to this
21 action, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and this Court’s Local Rule 304. Within thirty (30)
22 days of service of this recommendation, Plaintiff may file written objections to these findings
23 and recommendations with the Court. Such a document should be captioned “Objections to 24 Magistrate Judge’s Findings and Recommendations.” The district judge will review the 25 magistrate judge’s findings and recommendations pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C).

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Plaintiff is advised that failure to file objections within the specified time may result in
2 the waiver of rights on appeal. Wilkerson v. Wheeler, 772 F.3d 834, 839 (9th Cir. 2014) (citing
3 Baxter v. Sullivan, 923 F.2d 1391, 1394 (9th Cir. 1991)).
