1. Such a motion is a request for an order for judgment on some or all of Plaintiff’s claims in favor of Defendants without trial. See Rule 56(b).
2. Defendants’ motion set forth the facts which they contend are not reasonably subject to dispute and that entitle them to judgment as a matter of law. See Rule 56(c).

- 11 c. Plaintiff may also rely upon written records, but plaintiff must prove that the records are 12 what he claims they are;
- 13 d. Plaintiff may also rely upon all or any part of the transcript of one or more depositions,

- 21 6. If Plaintiff does not serve and file a request to postpone consideration of defendants'
22 motion or written opposition to the motion, the court may consider Plaintiff's failure to act

9. Plaintiff is advised that any declarations submitted by him must be dated and signed under penalty of perjury. His own declaration must set forth every fact within his personal knowledge that he relies upon to oppose the motion. He cannot merely say that facts set forth in other documents are true; the facts must be set forth in the declaration itself. Also, all declarations must set forth how the declaring witness knows the information to which he attests whether by the witness seeing something happen, hearing it, or feeling it, for example. The failure of declarants to comply with this guidance will result in the Court refusing to consider their declarations.

10. In order that Plaintiff may have an ample opportunity to file an opposition to Defendants' motion for summary judgment following receipt of this notice, the deadline to file an opposition is hereby continued. Plaintiff SHALL file any opposition to the motion for summary judgment no later than February 14, 2020.
