UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RAMIRO HUERTA,
Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:17-cv-01446-EPG

v.

AMENDED ORDER re SETTLEMENT

COUNTY OF TULARE, et al.,
Defendants.

(Doc. 162)

In view of Plaintiff’s request for an extension of time to submit his settlement demand (Doc. 162), which is unopposed, and to give the parties additional time to prepare, the Court hereby CONTINUES the Settlement Conference before Magistrate Judge Sheila K. Oberto to November 14, 2023, at 10:30 AM at the U.S. District Court, 2500 Tulare Street, Fresno, California, 93721.

Consideration of settlement is a serious matter that requires thorough preparation prior to the settlement conference. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Pre-settlement Conference Exchange of Demand and Offer

A settlement conference is more likely to be productive if, before the conference, the parties exchange written settlement proposals. Accordingly, at least 4 weeks prior to the settlement conference, counsel for each plaintiff shall submit an updated written itemization of damages and settlement demand to each defense counsel with a brief summary of the legal and factual basis supporting the demand. No later than 3 weeks prior to the settlement conference,

1 each defense counsel shall submit a written offer to counsel for each plaintiff with a brief
2 summary of the legal and factual basis supporting the offer.

3 2. Submission and Content of Confidential Settlement Conference Statements

4 The parties are to send Confidential Settlement Conference Statements (“Settlement
5 Statement”) to the following email address: SKOorders@caed.uscourts.gov, to arrive no later than
6 14 days before the conference. Each statement shall be clearly marked “CONFIDENTIAL” with 7 the date and time of the mandatory settlement conference indicated prominently. Each party shall
8 also file a Notice of Submission of Confidential Settlement Conference Statement. (See L.R. 270
9 (d).)

10 If the Settlement Conference is continued for any reason, each party must submit a new
11 Settlement Statement that is complete in itself, without reference to any prior Settlement
12 Statements.

13 Each Settlement Statement shall include the following:

- 14 a. A brief summary of the core facts, allegations, and defenses, a forthright 15 evaluation of the parties’ likelihood of prevailing on the claims and 16 defenses, and a description of the major issues in dispute.
- 17 b. A summary of the proceedings to date.
- 18 c. An estimate of the cost and time to be expended for further discovery, 19 pretrial, and trial.
- 20 d. The nature of the relief sought.
- 21 e. An outline of past settlement efforts including information regarding the 22 “Pre-settlement Conference Exchange of Demand and Offer” required
23 above—including the itemization of damages—and a history of past
24 settlement discussions, offers, and demands.
- 25 f. A statement of each party’s expectations and goals for the Settlement
26 Conference.

27 ///

1 3. Zoom Videoconferences

2 Although the parties shall be prepared to attend the settlement conference in person, they
3 may jointly request that the settlement conference be conducted by Zoom videoconference. If the
4 Court determines that a Zoom videoconference would be productive and the parties' request for a
5 Zoom videoconference is granted, the Court will provide dial-in information before the settlement
6 conference date.

7 4. Attendance of Trial Counsel and Parties Required

8 Unless otherwise permitted in advance by the Court, the attorneys who will try the case and
9 parties with full and complete settlement authority shall personally attend the conference.¹ An
10 insured party shall appear by a representative of the insurer who is authorized to negotiate, and who
11 has full authority to negotiate and settle the case. An uninsured corporate party shall appear by a
12 representative authorized to negotiate, and who has full authority to negotiate and settle the case. It
13 is difficult for a party who is not present to appreciate the process and the reasons that may justify
14 a change in one's perspective toward settlement. Accordingly, having a client with authority
15 available by telephone is not an acceptable alternative, except under the most extenuating
16 circumstances.²

17 The Court expects both the lawyers and the party representatives to be fully prepared to 18 participate. The Court encourages all parties to keep an open mind in order to reassess their previous 19 positions and to discover creative means for resolving the dispute.

20 5. Issues to Be Discussed

21 The parties shall be prepared to discuss the following at the settlement conference:

- 22 a. Goals in the litigation and problems they would like to address in the 23 settlement conference and understanding of the opposing side's goals.
- 24 b. The issues (in and outside the lawsuit) that need to be resolved.
- 25 c. The strengths and weaknesses of their case.

26 _____
27 ¹ Insurance carriers, business organizations, and governmental bodies or agencies whose settlement agreements are 28 subject to approval by legislative bodies, executive committees, boards of directors or the like shall be represented by a person or persons who occupy high executive positions in the party organization and who will be directly involved in the process of approval of any settlement offers or agreements.

² Out of town or out of state travel and the purchase of an airplane ticket are not extenuating circumstances.

- d. Their understanding of the opposing side’s view of the case.
- e. Their points of agreement and disagreement (factual and legal).
- f. Any financial, emotional, and/or legal impediments to settlement.
- g. Whether settlement or further litigation better enables the accomplishment of their respective goals.
- h. Any possibilities for a creative resolution of the dispute.

6. Statements Inadmissible

The parties are expected to address each other with courtesy and respect, and are encouraged to be frank and open in their discussions. Statements made by any party during the settlement conference are not to be used in discovery and will not be admissible at trial.

7. Pre-Settlement Discussion

Prior to the Settlement Conference, Magistrate Judge Oberto will hold a brief, telephonic discussion on November 7, 2023, at 4:00 PM (dial-in number: 1-888-557-8511; passcode: 6208204#). Only attorneys and unrepresented parties are required to participate in the conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 15, 2023
