UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ANTHONY PEREZ, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
COUNTY OF FRESNO, et al.,
Defendants.

No. 1:18-cv-00127-AWI-EPG
ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO CORRECT OR MODIFY CASE
MANAGEMENT SCHEDULE
(ECF No. 118)

On December 28, 2020, Defendants County of Fresno, Robert McEwen, Karlson Manasan, Jimmy Robnett and Braithan Stoltenberg (“County Defendants”) filed a motion to modify the scheduling order. (ECF No. 118). The Court grants the motion and modifies the scheduling order as set forth below.

On November 9, 2020, the parties filed a stipulation to modify the case management schedule. (ECF No. 103). That stipulation requested, among other things, a change to the dispositive motion filing date. (Id.). The Court granted the stipulation but also noted that it changed the trial date to March 15, 2022, to accommodate the new dispositive motion filing date. (ECF No. 116).

On December 28, 2020, County Defendants filed a motion, informing the Court that their counsel was set to have another trial on the same date. (ECF No. 118-1). They requested a continuance in the trial date or to modify the case management schedule to acknowledge the 1 possibility of a trial conflict. (Id.).

2 After consulting with the parties and the assigned district judge's calendar, the Court will
3 re-set the trial date to begin on May 10, 2022. All parties have indicated that they are available
4 that date. Although the Court notes that counsel for County Defendants has trials scheduled
5 before and after this date, there are none scheduled on this date. Additionally, it seems unlikely
6 that all of counsel's other trials will proceed as scheduled.

7 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this case shall proceed pursuant to the 8 following case management schedule:
