Although more than sixty-three (63) days have elapsed from the date of the return of the documents mailed to Petitioner, Petitioner has failed to advise the Court of his current address or contact the Court in any other way. The Court has discretion to impose any and all sanctions authorized by statute or rule, or within the inherent power of the Court, including dismissing the motion, based on a petitioner's failure to comply with a court rule. Fed. R. Civ. P. 11; Local R. 110.

Conclusion and Recommendation

Accordingly, the undersigned RECOMMENDS that as a result of Petitioner's failure to prosecute the case, the Court dismiss without prejudice the petition in the above-captioned action.

These Findings and Recommendations will be submitted to the United States District Judge assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C § 636(b)(1). Within thirty (30) days after being served with these Findings and Recommendations, Petitioner may file written objections with the Court. The document should be captioned "Objections to Magistrate Judge's Findings and Recommendations." Petitioner is advised that failure to file objections within the specified time may constitute waiver of the right to appeal the District Court's order. Wilkerson v. Wheeler, 772 F.3d 834, 839 ((9th Cir. 2014) (citing Baxter v. Sullivan, 923 F.2d 1391, 1394 (9th Cir. 1991)).

The Court Clerk is hereby directed to assign a district judge to this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
