

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RAUL GONZALES, JR., an individual,
Plaintiff,
v.
TRANS UNION, LLC, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.: 1:18-cv-00345-LJO-JLT

ORDER AFTER INFORMAL TELEPHONIC
CONFERENCE RE DISCOVERY DISPUTE
(Doc. 26)

At the request of plaintiff’s counsel, the Court held an informal telephone conference related to a discovery dispute. At the conference, it became clear that the attorneys have not yet exhausted their meet and confer obligations. However, there were a few matters addressed. Therefore, the Court

ORDERS:

1. No later than December 12, 2018, the defendant was to have provided the plaintiff’s counsel a privilege log;
2. No later than December 14, 2018, the defendant SHALL provide a draft protective order to plaintiff’s counsel.

After the conference, the Court realized the plaintiff still has not lodged his settlement conference statement. In addition, counsel both confirmed that they believed in good faith that the settlement conference is likely to be productive and requested that it remain on calendar. Thus, the Court further ORDERS:

