Counsel for Plaintiff Paul Pizana

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RAUL PIZANA,
Plaintiff

vs.

SANMEDICA INTERNATIONAL, LLC, and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,
Defendant

) Case No.: 1:18-cv-00644-DAD-SKO
)
) Judge Dale A. Drozd
)
) Magistrate Sheila K. Oberto
)
) PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED between the parties, by and through their 2 undersigned counsel of record, that:

3 WHEREAS, to expedite discovery and permit discovery to proceed without the delay 4 occasioned by possible disputes regarding claims of confidentiality, the parties wish to produce 5 documents and things subject to the protective provisions set forth below;

6 WHEREAS, the parties anticipate that, given the nature of the claims and defenses in this 7 action, discovery will likely include highly proprietary and sensitive business information, the 8 disclosure of which poses a substantial risk of harm to the parties' proprietary and financial 9 interests, including but not limited to (i) the operation and functioning of the parties' 10 manufacturing and distribution systems; (ii) trade secret and business strategy information 11 pertaining to the parties' product lines and marketing efforts; (iii) sensitive data regarding 12 customers, potential customers, sales, and third-party business partners; (iv) trade secret product 13 formulations; (v) sensitive technical information, including research, development and 14 manufacturing information (vi) confidential substantiation information; and (vii) other 15 proprietary technical or commercially sensitive information that is not otherwise available to the 16 public;

17 WHEREAS, the parties believe that the Terms and Conditions set forth below should be 18 entered by a court order, as opposed to a private agreement between or among the parties, because 19 the terms herein will pertain solely to the production and use of discovery in this action, will set 20 forth procedures by which the parties can expeditiously resolve confidentiality or privilege-21 related disputes before the Court, and will govern potential discovery from third parties who 22 would not otherwise be subject to a private agreement;

23 WHEREAS, the parties' disclosure of information in this action is made in reliance on the 24 provisions of this Protective Order permitting the parties and third parties to designate documents, 25 deposition and other testimony, information, and things as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 26

1 “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as defined below, and thereby protect such 2 designated information from unauthorized use or disclosure;

3 NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree to the Terms and Conditions set forth 4 below, and entry by the Court of this Protective Order.

5 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

6 1. The terms and conditions of this Protective Order shall be applicable to and shall govern 7 all information, documents and tangible things, regardless of medium or format, produced during 8 the course of discovery in this action, whether in response to a request, voluntarily, or pursuant 9 to a rule, order, or other requirement (“Discovery Materials”).

10 2. “Confidential Information” as used herein means any information in any of the 11 Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
12 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” by one or more of the parties to this action or a third party 13 responding to a subpoena served in this action (referred to as the “Designating Party”).

14 3. Confidential Information shall not be used or disclosed for any purpose other than the 15 prosecution, defense, appeal or settlement of this action. Any use of such information for any 16 other purpose, or any disclosure of such information to anyone not authorized under this 17 Protective Order, is expressly prohibited and would constitute a material breach of this Order.

18 4. Any party to this action or third party that produces Discovery Materials in this action
19 may designate such material as “CONFIDENTIAL” which it believes, in good faith, contains 20 information that, if disclosed, may cause injury to its business or business relationships with 21 others; that contain trade secrets or other confidential and non-public research, development or 22 commercial information; that contain non-public personal information; or that contain other 23 information for which a good faith claim of the need for protection from disclosure can be made 24 under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or other applicable law.

25 5. Any party to this action or third party that produces Discovery Materials in this action
26 may designate such material as “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if it believes,

1 in good faith, that (i) the material contains or reflects confidential information that comprises 2 sensitive technical, business or research information regarding products or services, and (ii) the 3 information is so commercially sensitive that disclosure to the opposing party is likely to cause 4 competitive harm to the Designating Party.

5 6. The Designating Party shall not designate as Confidential Information any documents
6 or things that are known by the Designating Party to be available to members of the general public.
7 However, subject to Paragraph 19 of this Protective Order, the Designating Party may designate 8 a compilation as “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if the Designating Party 9 believes in good faith that a compilation of otherwise public information (i) contains or reflects 10 confidential information that comprises sensitive technical, business or research information 11 regarding products or services, and (ii) the compilation is so commercially sensitive that 12 disclosure to the opposing party is likely to cause competitive harm to the Designating Party.

13 7. Hardcopy or electronic documents that any party or third party wishes to designate as 14 Confidential Information in this action shall be marked by placing the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” 15 or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as applicable on each page of the

17 8. Electronically stored information in any form (including embedded data and metadata), 18 whether oral, audio and/or visual (collectively, “Electronic Data”) that any party or third party 19 wishes to designate as Confidential Information in this action shall be marked by designating the 20 Electronic Data as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in 21 a cover letter accompanying the production of the Electronic Data and, where feasible, in the file 22 name of the document. Where feasible, counsel for the Producing Party shall also mark the disk, 23 tape or other electronic media on which the Electronic Data is produced with the appropriate 24 designation. If a Party reduces “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ 25 EYES ONLY” Electronic Data to hardcopy form, it shall mark the hardcopy with the appropriate 26

1 designation. Whenever any Confidential Information Electronic Data is copied, all copies shall 2 be marked with the appropriate designation.

3 9. Subject to Paragraph 19 of this Protective Order, deposition transcripts, or portions 4 thereof, may be designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES 5 ONLY” (a) during the deposition, in which case the designated testimony shall be identified by 6 page number in an index appearing at the end of the transcript; or (b) after the conclusion of the 7 deposition, within ten (10) days of receipt of the final deposition transcript, by written notice to 8 counsel of record for all parties. The entire deposition transcript shall be treated as 9 “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” for ten (10) days after receipt of the final 10 deposition transcript by counsel unless the Designating Party has earlier indicated a different 11 designation. The front page of any deposition containing Confidential Information shall be 12 marked by the court reporter as follows: “CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.” The 13 Designating Party shall have the right to have all persons except the deponent and his or her 14 counsel, counsel of record for the named parties, the court reporter, and such other persons as are 15 permitted under Paragraphs 10 and 11 below, excluded from a deposition, or any portion thereof, 16 as appropriate, before the taking therein of testimony that the Designating Party designates as 17 Confidential Information.

18 10. Absent written consent from the Designating Party or unless otherwise directed by the 19 Court, and subject to the provisions herein, information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall 20 not be provided, shown, made available, or communicated in any way to any person or entity with 21 the exception of:

22 a. Outside attorneys for a Party receiving Discovery Materials (referred to as a 23 “Receiving Party”), and any staff, assistants, clerical employees, and 24 information technology employees working under the direct supervision of 25 such counsel;

26 b. Officers and employees of a Receiving Party, and any person assisting such

1 officers and employees, where the review of such “CONFIDENTIAL” 2 materials or information is reasonably necessary and in connection with the 3 prosecution, defense, appeal or settlement of this action;

4 c. The Court and its staff in connection with the Court’s administration and 5 adjudication of this action;

6 d. Any outside expert or consultant to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose 7 Confidential Information for purposes of assisting in, or consulting with 8 respect to, this litigation and who have executed the Declaration of 9 Compliance attached hereto as Exhibit A;

10 e. Interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support services, document imaging 11 services, and database/coding services retained by counsel, for the purpose of assisting in 12 this action and who have executed the attached Declaration of Compliance; and 13 f. Court reporters and their staff for the purpose of assisting in this action.

14 11. Absent written consent from the Designating Party or unless otherwise directed by the 15 Court, and subject to the provisions herein, information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL: 16 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be provided, shown, made available, or communicated 17 in any way to any person or entity with the exception of:

18 a. Outside attorneys working on this action for a Receiving Party, and any staff, 19 assistants, clerical employees, and information technology employees working 20 under the direct supervision of such counsel;

21 b. The Court and its staff in connection with the Court’s administration and 22 adjudication of this action;

23 c. Any outside expert or consultant to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose 24 Confidential Information for purposes of assisting in, or consulting with 25 respect to, this litigation and who have executed the attached Declaration of 26 Compliance attached hereto as Exhibit A; and

1 d. Court reporters, interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support 2 services, document imaging services, and database/coding services retained by 3 counsel, for the purpose of assisting in this action and who have executed the 4 attached Declaration of Compliance.

5 12. Any person receiving Confidential Information or any Discovery Materials containing 6 such information, shall take reasonable care to ensure that the information is not communicated 7 or disclosed to anyone not authorized by Paragraphs 10 and 11 above to receive such information.

8 13. Counsel for each party shall maintain a file containing the Declarations of Compliance
9 (in the form of Exhibit A) executed by each person to whom disclosure of Confidential 10 Information is made by such counsel and who is required to sign such Declaration pursuant to 11 Paragraphs 10 and 11 above.

12 14. The designation of any document as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: 13 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not preclude any party from showing that document to any 14 person (a) who appears as the author or as a recipient on the face of the document; (b) who has 15 been identified by the Designating Party as having been provided with the document; (c) who is 16 a current employee or representative of the Designating Party called as a witness for deposition, 17 hearing or trial in this action; or (d) who is a former employee or representative of the Designating 18 Party called as a witness for deposition, hearing, or trial in this action and who had access to the 19 document at the time employed by the Designating Party, if such access is apparent from the face 20 of the document or confirmed by testimony.

21 15. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude legal counsel for a 22 Receiving Party from having high-level discussions with their client about the legal implications
23 of any Discovery Material designated as “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

24 16. Nothing in this Protective Order shall affect the right of any Designating Party to 25 maintain its own documents as it chooses, or to disclose or use for any purpose the documents or 26 information produced and designated by it as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:

ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," subject to the right of a party to seek, where appropriate, removal of the "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" designation of such documents or information as a result of such disclosure or use.

17. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit or affect the rights of any party to use or disclose any information or thing that has not been obtained through, or derived as a result of, this action.

18. Compliance with this Protective Order shall not be construed in any way as an admission or agreement by any party that the designated disclosure constitutes or contains any trade secret or confidential information of any other party or witness. No party to this action shall be obligated to challenge the propriety of any "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" designation by any other party or witness, and failure to do so shall not constitute a waiver or in any way preclude a subsequent challenge in this or any other action to the propriety of such designations.

19. Any party objecting to the designation of any information as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" must give counsel for the Designating Party written notice of the objection and its reasons for the objection, and the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve their differences. Objection may be made at any time, and failure to make a prompt objection shall not be a waiver of the right to object at any later time. Failing resolution, the party challenging the designation may file a motion with the Court consistent with the local rules and procedures of the Court requesting that the challenged designations be changed. In any such motion, the Designating Party shall bear the burden of proving that the challenged Discovery Materials were appropriately designated pursuant to this Protective Order. Until the Court rules on the motion, the material shall be treated as designated in accordance with this Order.

20. Production of any Discovery Materials without a designation of "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" shall not in and of itself be deemed a waiver of any party's claim of confidentiality as to such matter. The initial failure to designate

1 Discovery Materials in accordance with this Protective Order shall not preclude any party or third 2 party, at a later date, from designating such materials “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL:
3 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” A party or third party may, by written notice to counsel of record 4 for the Receiving Party or Parties, designate previously produced Discovery Materials as 5 Confidential Information. Upon receipt of such notice, the Receiving Party shall thereafter treat 6 the Discovery Materials in accordance with the new designation, shall restrict the disclosure or 7 use of such material to those persons qualified under this Protective Order, and, if such material 8 has previously been disclosed to persons not qualified under this Protective Order, shall take 9 reasonable steps to obtain all such previously disclosed Confidential Information and advise such 10 persons of the designation of confidentiality. If the Discovery Materials were originally produced 11 in hard-copy format, the Designating Party shall supply, at its own cost, replacement pages 12 containing the new designation of confidentiality.

13 21. The inadvertent production or disclosure of any document or communication that is 14 subject to an attorney-client, attorney work product, or other privilege will not be deemed a waiver 15 of such privilege, provided that the party entitled to assert such privilege notifies the parties to 16 whom such inadvertent disclosure or production was made promptly upon discovery of such 17 inadvertent disclosure.

18 22. Within 30 days of receiving the notice of inadvertent production, the Receiving Party 19 may move the Court for an order that such Discovery Material is not protected from disclosure 20 by any privilege, law, or doctrine and may submit the Discovery Material at issue to the Court for 21 filing under seal in connection with that motion. In any such motion, the Designating Party shall 22 bear the burden of proving that the challenged Discovery Materials are subject to an attorney-23 client, attorney work product, or other privilege. The Receiving Party shall not assert waiver due 24 to the inadvertent production as a ground for such motion. While the motion is pending, the 25 Receiving Party shall not use or disseminate the challenged Discovery Material for any purpose 26 other than such motion.

1 23. In the event that either (a) the party who has been notified of an inadvertent production
2 of protected Discovery Materials declines to file a motion with the Court challenging the claim 3 that the Discovery Materials are protected from disclosure, or (b) the Court determines that the 4 Discovery Materials are protected from disclosure, then the Receiving Party shall: (i) promptly 5 destroy the Discovery Material (or redact the protected portions of the Discovery Material in the 6 event that the entire Discovery Material is not claimed or found to be protected from disclosure)
7 and all copies thereof; (ii) permanently delete any electronic versions of the Discovery Material
8 from any data source, or any database it maintains; (iii) retrieve all paper copies of the Discovery
9 Material provided to any third parties, including experts and consultants; (iv) retrieve from third 10 parties all electronic copies contained on physical storage media where practicable, or if not, 11 direct that any such electronic versions be permanently deleted; (v) destroy portions of any notes 12 that reveal the substance of the protected information; and (vi) make no further use of the 13 protected information. In the event that only a portion of the Discovery Material is claimed or 14 found to be protected from disclosure, the party claiming protection shall promptly produce a new 15 version of that material with such information redacted.

16 24. In the event that a party wishes to use any Confidential Information, or any document 17 containing or making reference to the contents of such information, in any pleading or document 18 filed with the Court, such pleading or document shall be filed under seal pursuant to the Local 19 Civil Rules, including Eastern District Local Rule 141 and/or 141.1, unless the party receives 20 advanced written permission from the Designating Party to file without filing under seal. The 21 Clerk of the Court is directed to maintain under seal all documents and information filed under 22 seal with the Court in connection with this litigation, unless and until such time as the Court orders 23 otherwise or denies permission to file under seal.

24 25. A courtesy copy of any document that is filed under seal and that is specifically 25 intended for review by the Court may be hand delivered to the Court without waiving or 26 diminishing in any way the protections of this Protective Order. Any such courtesy copy shall be

1 prominently marked “CONFIDENTIAL – FILED UNDER SEAL AND CONTAINS 2 INFORMATION SUBJECT TO A PROTECTIVE ORDER.”

3 26. The disclosure of Confidential Information covered by this Protective Order, whether 4 pursuant to compelled discovery or otherwise, shall not constitute a waiver of any trade secret or 5 any intellectual property, proprietary, or other rights to or in such information. If any person or 6 entity receiving Confidential Information is subpoenaed in another action or proceeding, served 7 with a document demand, or otherwise requested to provide material covered by this Protective 8 Order, and such subpoena, document demand, or request seeks material which was produced or 9 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” the 10 person receiving the subpoena, document demand, or request shall give written notice promptly 11 (no more than ten (10) business days after receipt) to counsel for the Designating Party and shall, 12 to the extent permitted by law, withhold production of the material until any dispute relating to 13 the production of such material is resolved.

14 27. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by an attorney of record for the Designating 15 Party, within ninety days of the final adjudication (including any appellate proceedings) or other 16 final disposition of this action, all persons listed in Paragraphs 10 and 11 above, with the exception 17 of Paragraphs 10(c) and 11(b), who received any materials containing information designated as 18 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL: ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall, at the election 19 of the Designating Party, either (a) assemble and return all Confidential materials in its 20 possession, including all copies thereof, to the Designating Party, or (b) certify in writing that all 21 such material has been destroyed. If returned, the Designating Party shall acknowledge in writing 22 the receipt of any returned material. Counsel of record shall make reasonable efforts to ensure 23 that any experts, consultants, and outside legal vendors it has retained abide by this provision.

24 28. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, outside counsel for the parties shall be 25 entitled to retain court papers, deposition and trial transcripts, attorney work product, and all 26 exhibits to any of the foregoing that reflect or contain Confidential Information, provided that

1 such outside counsel, and employees of such outside counsel, shall maintain the confidentiality
2 thereof and shall not disclose any such information to any person except pursuant to Paragraph 3 26 or the written consent of the Designating Party.

4 29. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to limit, prejudice, or waive any right 5 of any party or person (a) to resist or compel discovery with respect to, or to seek to obtain 6 additional or different protection for, material claimed to be protected work product or privileged 7 under applicable law, material as to which a party claims a legal obligation not to disclose, or 8 material not required to be provided pursuant to applicable law; (b) to seek to modify or obtain 9 relief from any aspect of this Protective Order; (c) to object to the use, relevance or admissibility
10 at trial or otherwise of any material, whether or not designated in whole or in part as Confidential 11 Information governed by this Protective Order; or (d) otherwise to require that discovery be 12 conducted according to governing laws and rules.

13 30. This Protective Order shall not prevent a party from applying to the Court for further 14 or additional protective orders or to modify the provisions of this Order.

15 31. The undersigned will treat Discovery Materials that are designated by a third party as 16 Confidential Information in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Protective Order 17 regardless of whether the third party is or becomes a signatory to the Order.

18 32. Any party serving a subpoena in this action on a non-party shall include with the 19 subpoena a copy of this Protective Order.

20 33. The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Protective Order, and this Court's 21 jurisdiction over disputes relating to this Protective Order, shall survive termination of this action 22 and shall remain in effect unless otherwise expressly ordered by the Court.
