On October 1, 2019, the Court ordered Plaintiff to show cause in writing why sanctions should not be imposed for the failure to comply with the Court's Scheduling Order to serve a confidential letter brief upon the Commissioner of Social Security. (Doc. 12) In the alternative, the Court ordered Plaintiff to serve the confidential letter brief and file proof of service with the Court within fourteen days. (Id. at 2)

Naichou See filed a response to the Court’s order on the same date, requesting an extension of time to serve the letter brief and file proof of service. (Doc. 13) Plaintiff’s counsel reports he “did not receive proper notification that the administrative record had been filed,” and mistakenly calendared the filing deadline for the administrative record. (Id. at 2) Therefore, Plaintiff requests an extension of thirty days, to November 13, 2019. (Doc. 14 at 1-2
