13 EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

14 SEYED AMIN SAM MOTAGHEDI,

15 Plaintiff,

16 v.

17 ANTONY BLINKEN, et al.,

18 Defendants.

CASE NO. 1:19-CV-1466 NONE SKO

JOINT STATUS REPORT

19
20 Plaintiffs state that they brought this action under the Administrative Procedure Act and the 21 Mandamus Act seeking to enjoin the Department of State from usurping consular officer authority and 22 discretion to adjudicate plaintiffs' waiver adjudication under Presidential Proclamation 9645, Enhancing 23 Vetting Capabilities and Processes for Detecting Attempted Entry Into the United States by Terrorists or 24 Other Public-Safety Threats, and to compel the resulting unreasonably delayed adjudications. The 25 parties filed a previous status report advising of the revocation of that Presidential Proclamation. The 26 parties now further advise that plaintiff Atarie, the sole remaining unadjudicated applicant in this 27

1 lawsuit, has been advised by the Department of State that he may now schedule his medical
2 examination. He is expected to travel to Turkey for that purpose shortly.

3 During the litigation in this case, some plaintiffs' applications were adjudicated under a different
4 Presidential Proclamation, PP 10014, related to the coronavirus pandemic. The Department of State
5 advises that the new Administration is actively reviewing the restrictions imposed by Presidential 6 Proclamation 10014, issued by then-President Trump. The government will provide an update to the 7 court as soon as a decision is taken on whether to rescind the Proclamation.
8

9 For these reasons, the parties propose to file a further status report with the Court by March 5, 10 2021.
