ORDER RELATING AND REASSIGNING CASES

19 On January 4, 2019, the Chicken Ranch Rancheria of Me-Wuk Indians, Blue Lake
20 Rancheria, Chemehuevi Indian Tribe, Hopland Band of Pomo Indians, and Robinson Rancheria
21 (“2019 Tribes”) filed suit against the State of California and Governor Edmund Brown, Jr.
22 (“California”), E.D. Cal. Case No. 1:19-cv-0024. The 2019 Tribes assert that California violated
23 the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act by failing to engage in good faith negotiations with the 24 2019 Tribes concerning renewal/extensions of class III gaming compacts.

25 The 2019 Tribes were part of a larger group of federally recognized California Indian 26 Tribes (whose gaming compacts expire on December 31, 2020 with automatic extension to June 27 30, 2022 unless a further compact is agreed to) called the Compact Tribes Steering Committee 28 (“CTSC”) formed in 2014. The CTSC sought to negotiate with California as a group to renew/extend their gaming compacts. The negotiations did not result in a successful agreement.
Certain Tribes withdrew from the negotiations in January 2019 and filed suit.

1 The CTSC continued to negotiate with California until July 2020. Other members of the 2 CTSC have now also filed suit against California. The Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians filed E.D.
3 Cal. Case No. 1:20-cv-1147. The Cachil Dehe Band of Wintun Indians of the Colusa Indian
4 Community filed E.D. Cal. 2:20-cv-1585. The Cahuilla Band of Indians filed E.D. Cal. Case No.
5 2:20-cv-1630. In the three new suits, the plaintiffs (“2020 Tribes”) also allege that California
6 violated the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act by failing to engage in good faith negotiations.
7 There is significant overlap in the subject matter of all the suits as the 2019 and 2020 Tribes were 8 all members of the CTSC which negotiated as a group with California for several years. The 2020
9 Tribes have filed notices of related cases, seeking relation of all four cases.

10 Local Rules state that “If the Judge to whom the action with the lower or lowest number
11 has been assigned determines that assignment of the actions to a single Judge is likely to effect a
12 savings of judicial effort or other economies, that Judge is authorized to enter an order reassigning 13 all higher numbered related actions to himself or herself.” Local Rule 123(c). To guide this 14 determination, the Local Rules also provide that:

15 An action is related to another action within the meaning of this Rule when

16 (1) both actions involve the same parties and are based on the same or a similar 17 claim;

18 (2) both actions involve the same property, transaction, or event;

19 (3) both actions involve similar questions of fact and the same question of law and 20 their assignment to the same Judge or Magistrate Judge is likely to effect a substantial savings of judicial effort, either because the same result should follow in both actions or otherwise; or

21 (4) for any other reasons, it would entail substantial duplication of labor if the 22 actions were heard by different Judges or Magistrate Judges.

23 Local Rule 123(a). Here, the four cases appear to, in part, involve the same transaction or event
24 and involve similar questions of fact and law; assignment to the same judge is likely to effect a 25 substantial savings of judicial effort. Local Rule 123(a)(2), (3), and (4). Because the undersigned 26 is assigned the lowest numbered related case, the above-entitled cases will be reassigned to the 27 dockets of Senior District Judge Anthony Ishii and referred to Magistrate Judge Sheila K. Oberto.
