9 EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

10 TOM LEONHART,
11 Plaintiff,
12 v.
13 C. R. BARD INC., and
14 BARD PERIPHERAL VASCULAR, INC.,
15 Defendants.

Case No.: 1:20-cv-01677-DAD-BAM

JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND STAY OF DISCOVERY AND ALL
PRETRIAL DEADLINES & ORDER

(Doc. No. 47.)

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and (d), Plaintiff in the above-titled
2 action and Defendants C. R. Bard, Inc. and Bard Peripheral Vascular, Inc. (collectively, “Bard”)
3 (Plaintiff and Bard are collectively referred to herein as “the Parties”), respectfully request that
4 this Court extend the temporary stay of discovery and all pretrial deadlines and continue the initial
5 Scheduling Conference in this case until March 2, 2021 while the Parties continue settlement
6 discussions. In support thereof, the Parties state as follows:

7 1. This case was originally filed in the State Court of Dallas County, Texas, by a Texas
8 resident serving as lead plaintiff, and joined multiple individual plaintiffs, including the instant
9 plaintiff. The case was subsequently removed by Bard to the United States District Court for the 10 Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division.

11 2. On August 20, 2020, the Court issued an Order granting the lead plaintiff’s
12 Unopposed Motion to Sever and Transfer Venue of Out-of-State Plaintiff’s Cases, and the case
13 was transferred to this District and assigned to this Court. (Doc. 27.)

14 3. On September 15, 2020, this Court found good cause to grant the parties’ previous 15 motion to stay all discovery pretrial deadlines in this action and continue the initial scheduling
16 conference to December 9, 2020 at 9:00 AM in Courtroom 8 (BAM). (Doc. 45.) The Parties
17 continue to engage in serious settlement discussions in an effort to reach a global resolution of an 18 entire inventory of cases, which consists of over 700 cases. Accordingly, the Parties jointly move
19 this Court for an order extending the staying of all discovery and pretrial deadlines and continuing
20 the initial Scheduling Conference in this case until March 2, 2021 to allow the Parties to continue
21 to engage in settlement discussions. This will further facilitate settlement discussions and prevent 22 unnecessary expenditures of the parties and judicial resources.

23 4. A district court has broad discretion over pretrial discovery rulings. See, e.g., 24 Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 598 (1998); accord Thermal Design, Inc. v. Am. Soc’y of 25 Heating, Refrigerating & Air-Conditioning Engineers, Inc., 755 F.3d 832, 837 (7th Cir. 2014);
26 Burns v. EGS Fin. Care, Inc., No. 4:15-CV-06173-DGK, 2016 WL 7535365 at *1 (W.D. Mo. Apr.
27 12, 2016); see also Cook v. Kartridg Pak Co., 840 F.2d 602, 604 (8th Cir. 1988) (“A district court
28 must be free to use and control pretrial procedure in furtherance of the orderly administration of

1 justice.”); see also CMAX, Inc. v. Hall, 300 F.2d 265, 268 (9th Cir. 1962) (district courts possess
2 “inherent power to control the disposition of the causes on its docket in a manner which will
3 promote economy of time and effort for itself, for counsel, and for litigants”).

4 5. Under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(c) and 26(d), a court may limit the scope
5 of discovery or control its sequence. See Britton, 523 U.S. at 598. Although settlement
6 negotiations do not automatically excuse a party from its discovery obligations, the parties can 7 seek a stay prior to the cutoff date. See Sofo v. Pan-American Life Ins. Co., 13 F.3d 239, 242 (7th
8 Cir. 1994); Wichita Falls Office Assocs. V. Banc One Corp., 978 F.2d 915, 918 (5th Cir. 1993)
9 (finding that a “trial judge’s decision to curtail discovery is granted great deference,” and noting
10 that the discovery had been pushed back a number of times because of pending settlement 11 negotiations).

12 6. The Parties agree that the relief sought herein is necessary to handle the case in the 13 most economical fashion, yet allow sufficient time to schedule and complete discovery if 14 necessary, consistent with the scheduling obligations of counsel. The relief sought in this Motion
15 is not being requested for delay, but so that justice may be done.

16 WHEREFORE, The Parties jointly request that the stay of discovery and all pretrial
17 deadlines be extended and that the initial Scheduling Conference be continued until March 2, 2021
18 to allow the Parties to conduct ongoing settlement negotiations.
