September 26, 2023. (ECF No. 31 at 3.) Defendant's counsel further states that, in practice, the surrender of the vehicle will occur within 45 days of acceptance of the documents. (Id.) Defendant's counsel apologizes for the delay in obtaining the dispositional documents and states the surrender is anticipated to take place on or about November 10, 2023. (Id.)

5 On October 18, 2023, Maite Colon, attorney for Plaintiffs Javier Navarro Villegas and 6 Luis Navarro, filed a declaration in response to the Court's order, which generally mirrors 7 Defendant's counsel's declaration regarding the timeline required to surrender the vehicle. (ECF 8 No. 32.) Notably, Plaintiffs' counsel also represents that her office forwarded a fee demand to 9 Defendant for attorneys' fees, and Plaintiffs expect a response on or by October 23, 2023 as to 10 whether there is an agreement or whether a motion for attorneys' fees will be required. (ECF No. 11 32 at 2.) Plaintiffs' counsel apologizes for missing the deadline to file dispositional documents 12 and states it was an inadvertent error. (Id. at 2.) Plaintiffs' counsel requests that the deadline to 13 file dispositional documents be continued to November 10, 2023 to allow time for completion of 14 the settlement terms and for attorneys' fees to be resolved by either agreement or motion. (Id. at 15 3.) While the Court generally does not keep a case open for performance under a settlement 16 agreement, given the potential dispute of attorney's fees and the representations by the parties, the 17 Court finds good cause to discharge the order to show cause and grant the requested extension of 18 time.
