ORDER RE: ORAL ARGUMENT

The Court is in receipt of the Joint Statement of Parties Regarding Time For Oral Argument. Although the parties have estimated that each side will complete its argument in 2.25 hours, the Court will continue to reserve both February 3 and February 4, 2009, for argument, in order to assure that there is sufficient time. The Court may use the additional time to pursue further with the parties some factual and legal questions regarding remedies that will be relevant should the Court ultimately find it necessary to determine the content of a prisoner release order.

In addition, the location of oral argument has been changed. Oral argument will commence at 10:00 AM on February 3, 2009, in the Ceremonial Courtroom (Courtroom 1)
