STIPULATION AND ORDER RE: MODIFICATION OF
 DEFENDANTS' SHORT-TERM
 PROJECT TO PILOT DOUBLE BUNK
 AT SALINAS VALLEY STATE PRISON

19
 20 On March 31, 2009, this Court ordered that Defendants develop and file concrete proposals
 21 to meet the short-term, intermediate-term, and long-range beds needs of the Coleman class
 22 members. (Docket No. 3556.) Defendants submitted their bed plan on May 26, 2009. (Docket
 23 No. 3592.) As one of their short-term bed projects, Defendants proposed a pilot project to double
 24 bunk inmate-patients requiring an Intermediate Care Facility level of care in one 10-cell wing in 25 Treatment Center 1 of the Salinas Valley Psychiatric Program at Salinas Valley State Prison. (Id.
 26 at 13.) This Court approved that project on June 18, 2009. (Docket No. 3613 ¶ 3.a.)

27 By July 31, 2009, all work on the new 64-bed Intermediate Care Facility—Treatment
 28 Center 2—of the Salinas Valley Psychiatric Program at Salinas Valley State Prison, was

1 complete. (Docket No. 3653.) Defendants now seek to modify their May 26, 2009 bed plan to
2 pilot double bunk the inmate-patients in one 10-cell wing in Treatment Center 2, rather than in
3 Treatment Center 1. Defendants have represented that double bunking in Treatment Center 2
4 provides a better treatment option because it has more space available for treatment and
5 programming, and Plaintiffs agree to this change based on that representation.

6 The parties, by and through their counsel, stipulate that Defendants' short-term, emergency
7 project to pilot double bunk the inmate-patients in one 10-cell wing in Treatment Center 1 of the 8 Salinas Valley Psychiatric Program at Salinas Valley State Prison, shall be modified so that the 9 pilot double-bunk project will proceed forward in Treatment Center 2, rather than in Treatment
10 Center 1.
