The Parties to the above-captioned case, through their counsel, stipulate as follows:

1. In the above-captioned case, as well as in Plata v. Schwarzenegger, all matters concerning attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses have been stayed pending the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in Case No. 09-1233, Brown v. Plata. See Plata Docket 2321, 2344; Coleman Docket 3948, 2977.
2. On May 23, 2011, United States Supreme Court issued its decision in Brown v. Plata [and Coleman], ___ U.S. ___, 2011 U.S. LEXIS 4012, affirming the three-judge panel decision. Accordingly, the parties have met and conferred regarding Plaintiffs’ attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses for both the three-judge panel proceedings and the proceedings before the Supreme Court of the United States. In order to exhaust any possibility of settling these matters, or of narrowing the disputes as much as possible, the parties jointly request additional time to meet and confer.
3. The parties request that the Court extend the stay of all attorneys’ fees, costs and expense matters related to the Three-Judge Panel and related appeals, including the appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States and direct the parties to complete their meet and confer process by August 26, 2011, with any motion for fees, costs and expenses due 60 days thereafter. In so doing, plaintiffs do not waive and will enforce their right to interest in accordance with the provisions set forth in the March 19, 1996 Coleman Periodic Fees order. Defendants do not waive any rights or arguments to object to any and all fees and costs or to appeal any order regarding fees and costs arising out of the Three-Judge Panel proceedings. For the duration of the stay, any and all deadlines relating to motions or claims for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses contained in the Federal Civil Rules, the Federal Appellate Rules, the U.S. Supreme Court Rules, and/or the Local Rules

1 for the Eastern District of California are stayed.

2 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
