Case No. 2:90-cv-0520 KJM KJN P
THREE-JUDGE COURT

Case No. 01-cv-01351-TEH
THREE-JUDGE COURT
ORDER REQUIRING ADDITIONAL REPORTING

On February 10, 2014, this court granted defendants' request for a two-year extension in which to comply with the court's June 30, 2011 order to reduce California's in-state adult institution population to no more than 137.5% of design capacity. The two-year extension gave defendants until February 28, 2016 to meet the court-ordered reduction. Feb. 10, 2014 Order at 2 (ECF No. 2766/5060).¹ Since receiving the extension, defendants have made laudable progress, and achieved compliance with the percentage

¹ All filings in this Three-Judge Court are included in the individual docket sheets of both Plata v. Brown, No. 01-cv-01351-TEH (N.D. Cal.), and Coleman v. Brown, No. 2:90-cv-0520 KJM KJN P (E.D. Cal.). This court includes the docket number of Plata first, then Coleman.

24 ² Defendants’ monthly reports all state that there are 4,218 MCCF (modified 25 community correctional facility) beds “that are in various stages of activation and transfer.”

26 ³ The court uses the figures on page 1 of Defendants’ August status report, which 27 appear to be correct based on the weekly report available at http://www.cdcr.ca.gov/Reports_Research/Offender_Information_Services_Branch/WeeklyWed/TPOPIA/TPOPIAd150812.pdf. The figures at the top of Exhibit A to the August report appear not to have 28 been updated from the July report.

1 2880/5388, 2882/5400, 2886/5411). Even as the benchmark has been attained, as reflected 2 in the above table, however, the in-state adult institution population has been gradually
3 increasing since July 2015. Part of this growth is due to the State’s commendable efforts 4 to return inmates from out-of-state facilities, but there still remain over 5,000 inmates in 5 out-of-state facilities. There are also approximately 5,500 inmates housed in in-state 6 contract facilities.⁴ Moreover, defendants project that the total number of inmates will 7 increase by over 3,600 over the next few years, which in itself threatens to push the 8 population back over the threshold. See An Update to the Future of California

11 The court commends defendants for achieving the required reduction in the current 12 in-state adult institution population. It also commends the parties for working 13 cooperatively to ensure that the court’s orders are fully implemented. E.g., Stip. & Order 14 in Response to Nov. 14, 2014 Order (ECF No. 2830/5254).

15 At the same time, as this court has previously ordered and as defendants recognize, 16 the court will “maintain jurisdiction over this matter for as long as is necessary to ensure 17 that defendants’ compliance with the 137.5% final benchmark is durable, and such 18 durability is firmly established.” Feb. 10, 2014 Order at 5. Additional work remains for 19 defendants to demonstrate that they can maintain compliance with the population 20 benchmark in the absence of court-ordered remedies. To that end, defendants shall 26 ⁴ As of midnight February 10, 2016, which is the source of the population data in 27 defendants’ most recent status report, there were 5,530 inmates housed in in-state contract 28 beds, including the 1,813 inmates housed at California City. See CDCR, Weekly Rpt. of Population, Feb. 10, 2016, available at [http://www.cdcr.ca.gov/Reports_Research/

3 taking to ensure that compliance with the 137.5% benchmark is durable.
