Case No. 2:90-cv-00520 KJM-DB (PC)
STIPULATION AND ORDER
 MODIFYING THE DECEMBER 11, 1995
 ORDER OF REFERENCE [DKT NO. 640]
 Judge: The Honorable Kimberly J.
 Mueller

21
 22 On July 3, 2019, the Court issued its order approving the 2018 Program Guide Revision.
 23 (ECF No. 6211.) Paragraph 4 of the July 3 order requires “[w]ithin twenty-one days from the 24 date of this order, the parties shall meet and confer and submit to the court a proposed stipulation
 25 and order for modification of the ten-day objection period in the Order of Reference to add a 26 provision governing the objection period for reports from the Special Master that are not 27 circulated to the parties for review and comment prior to filing.” (Id. at 19.) 28

1 The 1995 Order of Reference bestowed upon the Special Master the duty to “make interim
2 reports to the court on the progress of the remedial plan” and to “prepare and file with the court 3 periodic reports assessing defendants’ compliance with such remedial plan as the court may 4 order.” (Dkt. No. 640 at 4.) The Order of Reference imposed, as an additional condition on the 5 filing of the compliance reports, that the Special Master serve the parties with a draft of each 6 compliance report “to afford counsel a reasonable time within which to submit to the special 7 master specific, written objections.” (Id.) Over the course of this case, the Special Master has 8 regularly provided the parties with a minimum of thirty days in which to submit objections to the 9 draft compliance reports. The Order of Reference further provides that any compliance report 10 “shall be adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the court, unless, within ten 11 days after being served with the filing of the report, either side moves to reject or modify the 12 report.” (Id.)

13 The Order of Reference is silent as to the deadline to respond to reports filed by the Special 14 Master that are not circulated to the parties for review and comment prior to filing. It is thus 15 unclear whether the 10-day deadline contained in Section C of the Order of Reference or the 16 twenty-one day deadline provided by Rule 53 (f) (2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for 17 parties to file objections to, or to move to modify or adopt, a report of a Special Master governs.

18 The parties have met and conferred and agree that the Court should set as the deadline for 19 the parties to respond to reports filed by the Special Master that are not served on the parties 20 before they are filed, at thirty days from the date of service of the filed report.

21 Accordingly, the parties jointly request that the Court modify the Order of Reference to 22 expressly provide that, for any report filed by the Special Master that has not been circulated to 23 the parties for review and comment prior to filing, the parties will have thirty days from the date
24 of service to file objections to, or move to modify, reject, or adopt, such a report. No other aspect 25 of the Order of Reference is herein modified.
