

1 to the court's direction in the November 4, 2020 order; for that reason, the court struck the brief.
2 See December 24, 2020 Order, ECF No. 7003. Plaintiffs' objections focus on issues beyond the
3 scope of the proposed revisions or the proposed PNP policy, see ECF No. 6994, and so the court
4 disregards them. To the extent those objections present concrete disputes that plaintiffs wish to 5 tender to the court in aid of the required remedy in this case, the court has set out the process for 6 seeking such resolution. See ECF No. 7003.

7 Taking account of the above, the court's review of the record shows that (1) the 8 revisions proposed by defendants fall within the scope of the court's November 4, 2020 order;
9 (2) there are no objections to the proposed revisions themselves; and (3) there are no objections to 10 the proposed PNP policy as written. Accordingly, the proposed revisions and the proposed PNP
11 policy will be approved.

12 In accordance with the above, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 13 1. Defendants' December 11, 2020 proposed revisions to the 2009 Staffing Plan, 14 ECF No. 6978-1 at 3-5, are approved and may be implemented forthwith; and
- 15 2. Defendants' December 11, 2020 proposed policy for use of psychiatric nurse 16 practitioners in their mental health care delivery system, ECF No. 6978-1 at 17 7-27, is approved and shall be implemented forthwith.

18 DATED: January 26, 2021.
