UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GLENN CORNWELL, JR.,
Petitioner,
v.
WARDEN, San Quentin State Prison, Respondent.

No. 2:06-cv-00705 TLN-KJN
DEATH PENALTY CASE
ORDER

Petitioner, who is represented by counsel, has filed another pro se filing titled “Notice of On-Going Criminal Judicial Misconduct under the Color of Unlawful, Unconstitutional Authority.” (ECF No. 117.) Petitioner has already been advised that pro se filings will be disregarded because he is represented by counsel and that no orders will issue in response to future filings. (See ECF No. 116.) Petitioner shall cease filing pro se filings; all filings must be through counsel. While the court understands that petitioner may be frustrated by the delays in the processing of his case, he is advised that the Eastern District of California maintains one of the heaviest caseloads in the nation, a significant portion of which is comprised of pro se inmate cases. This sometimes causes unavoidable delays in the resolution of individual matters, and petitioner’s pro se filings do nothing but further slow the court’s ability to address his case. The
